IMPORTANT NOTICE

This information memorandum (together with any information incorporated herein by reference, the “Information Memorandum”) contains summary information provided by Acciona Energía Financiación Filiales, S.A. Unipersonal (the “Issuer”) and by Corporación Acciona Energías Renovables, SA. (the “Guarantor”) in connection with a euro-commercial paper programme (the “Programme”) under which the Issuer may issue and have outstanding at any time euro-commercial paper notes (the “Notes”) up to a maximum aggregate amount of €2,000,000,000 or its equivalent in alternative currencies. Under the Programme, the Issuer may issue Notes outside the United States pursuant to Regulation S (“Regulation S”) of the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) which will have the benefit of an English law governed deed of guarantee dated 19 July 2022 (the “English Law Guarantee”) or a Spanish law governed guarantee dated 19 July 2022 (the “Spanish Law Guarantee”) and, together with the English Law Guarantee, the “Guarantees” and each a “Guarantee”), as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement, entered into by the Guarantor. The Issuer and the Guarantor have, pursuant to an amended and restated dealer agreement dated 19 July 2022 (the “Dealer Agreement”), appointed Banco Santander, S.A. as arranger for the Programme (the “Arranger”), appointed Banca March, S.A., Banco Bilbao Vizcaya Argentaria, S.A., Banco de Sabadell, S.A., Banco Santander, S.A., Bankinter, S.A., Bestinver Sociedad de Valores, S.A., Bred Banque Populaire, CaixaBank, S.A. Coöperatieve Rabobank U.A., NatWest Markets N.V. and Norbolsa, S.V., S.A. as dealers for the Notes (each a “Dealer” and, together, the “Dealers”, which expression shall include any other dealer appointed from time to time by the Issuer either generally in respect of the Programme or in relation to a particular issue of Notes) and authorised and requested the Dealers to circulate the Information Memorandum in connection with the Programme on its behalf to investors or potential investors in the Notes.

THE NOTES AND THE GUARANTEES HAVE NOT BEEN AND WILL NOT BE REGISTERED UNDER THE UNITED STATES SECURITIES ACT OF 1933 AS AMENDED (THE “SECURITIES ACT”) OR ANY U.S. SECURITIES LAWS AND MAY NOT BE OFFERED SOLD OR DELIVERED WITHIN THE UNITED STATES UNLESS AN EXEMPTION FROM THE REGISTRATION REQUIREMENTS OF THE SECURITIES ACT IS AVAILABLE AND IN ACCORDANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS OF ANY STATE OF THE UNITED STATES AND ANY OTHER JURISDICTION.

The Notes and the Guarantees have not been approved or disapproved by the United States Securities and Exchange Commission or any other securities commission or other regulatory authority in the United States, nor have the foregoing authorities approved this Information Memorandum or confirmed the accuracy or determined the adequacy of the information contained in this Information Memorandum. Any representation to the contrary is unlawful.

The Issuer and the Guarantor accept responsibility for the information contained in this Information Memorandum. To the best of the knowledge of the Issuer and the Guarantor (who have taken all reasonable care to ensure that such is the case), the information contained in this Information Memorandum is in accordance with the facts and does not omit anything likely to affect the import of such information.

Notice of the aggregate nominal amount of Notes, the issue price of Notes and any other terms and conditions not contained herein which are applicable to each issue of Notes will be set out in pricing supplements (each a “Pricing Supplement”) which will be attached to the relevant Note (see “Forms of Notes”). Each Pricing Supplement will be supplemental to and must be read in conjunction with the full terms and conditions of the Notes. Copies of each Pricing Supplement containing details of each particular issue of Notes will be available from the specified office set out below of the Issue and Paying Agent (as defined below).

This Information Memorandum comprises listing particulars made pursuant to the Listing and Admission to Trading Rules for Short Term Paper promulgated by Euronext Dublin. This Information Memorandum should be read and construed in conjunction with any supplemental Information Memorandum, any Pricing Supplement and with any document incorporated by reference.

The Issuer and the Guarantor have confirmed to the Dealers that the information contained or incorporated by reference in the Information Memorandum is true, complete and accurate in all material respects and not misleading in any material respects and that there are no other facts the omission of which makes the Information Memorandum as a whole or any such information contained or incorporated by reference therein misleading in any material respect. Any statements of intention, opinion, belief or expectation contained in the Information Memorandum are honestly and reasonably made by the Issuer and the Guarantor and, in relation to each issue of Notes agreed as contemplated in the Dealer Agreement to be issued and subscribed, the Information Memorandum, together with the relevant Pricing Supplement, contains all the information which is material in the context of the issue of such Notes.

Neither the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Arranger, the Issue and Paying Agent (as defined below), nor the Dealers accept any responsibility, express or implied, for updating the Information Memorandum and neither the delivery of the Information Memorandum nor any offer or sale made on the basis of the information in the Information Memorandum shall under any circumstances create any implication that the Information Memorandum is accurate at any time subsequent to the date thereof with respect to the Issuer or the Guarantor or that there has been no change in the business, financial condition or affairs of the Issuer or the Guarantor since the date thereof.

No person is authorised by the Issuer or the Guarantor to give any information or to make any representation not contained or incorporated by reference in the Information Memorandum and any information or representation not contained or incorporated by reference herein must not be relied upon as having been authorised by the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Issue and Paying Agent, the Arranger, the Dealers or any of them.

Neither the Arranger, the Issue and Paying Agent, nor any Dealer has independently verified the information contained in the Information Memorandum. Accordingly, no representation or warranty or undertaking (express or implied) is made, and no responsibility or liability is accepted by the Arranger or the Dealers as to the authenticity, origin, validity, accuracy or completeness of, or any errors in or omissions from, any information or statement contained in the Information Memorandum, any Pricing Supplement or in or from any accompanying or subsequent material or presentation.

The information contained in the Information Memorandum or any Pricing Supplement is not and should not be construed as a recommendation by the Arranger, the Dealers, the Issuer or the Guarantor that any recipient should purchase Notes. Each such recipient must make and shall be deemed to have made its own independent assessment and investigation of the financial condition, affairs and creditworthiness of the Issuer and of the Programme as it may deem necessary and must base any investment decision upon such independent assessment and investigation and not on the Information Memorandum or any Pricing Supplement.

Neither the Arranger nor any Dealer undertakes to review the business or financial condition or affairs of the Issuer or the Guarantor during the life of the Programme, nor undertakes to advise any recipient of the Information Memorandum or any Pricing Supplement of any information or change in such information coming to the Arranger's or any Dealer's attention.

Neither the Arranger nor any of the Dealers accepts any liability in relation to this Information Memorandum or any Pricing Supplement or its or their distribution by any other person. This Information Memorandum does not, and is not intended to, constitute (nor will any Pricing Supplement constitute, or be intended to constitute) an offer or invitation to any person to purchase Notes.

The distribution of this Information Memorandum and any Pricing Supplement and the offering for sale of Notes or any interest in such Notes or any rights in respect of such Notes, in certain jurisdictions, may be restricted by law. Persons obtaining this Information Memorandum, any Pricing Supplement or any Notes or any interest in such Notes or any rights in respect of such Notes are required by the Issuer, the Guarantor, the Arranger and the Dealers to inform themselves about and to observe any such restrictions. In particular, but without limitation, such persons are required to comply with the restrictions on offers or sales of Notes and on distribution of this Information Memorandum and other information in relation to the Notes, the Issuer set out under "Subscription and Sale" below.

The Programme is rated by Fitch Ratings Ireland Spanish Branch, Sucursal en España, a branch of Fitch Ratings Ireland Limited ("Fitch"). Fitch is established in the EEA and registered under Regulation (EC) No 1060/2009 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 16 September 2009 on credit rating agencies, as amended (the "CRA Regulation"). A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency.

The Issuer and the Guarantor have undertaken, in connection with the admission of the Notes to listing on the Official List and to trading on the regulated market of Euronext Dublin, that if there shall occur any adverse change in the business or financial position of the Issuer or the Guarantor or any change in the terms and conditions of the Notes, that is material in the context of the issuance of Notes under the Programme, the Issuer and the Guarantor will prepare or procure the preparation of an amendment or supplement to this Information Memorandum or, as the case may be, publish a new Information Memorandum, for use in connection with any subsequent issue by the Issuer of Notes to be admitted to listing on the Official List and to trading on the regulated market of Euronext Dublin. Any such supplement to this Information Memorandum will be subject to the approval of Euronext Dublin prior to its publication.

This Information Memorandum describes in summary form certain Spanish tax implications and procedures in connection with an investment in the Notes (see "Risk Factors – Risks in relation to Spanish Taxation" and "Taxation – Taxation in Spain"). No comment is made or advice is given by the Issuer, the Arranger or the Dealer in respect of taxation matters relating to the Notes. Investors must seek their own advice to ensure that they comply with all procedures to ensure correct tax treatment of their Notes.

Certain Dealers and their affiliates (including parent companies) have engaged, and may in the future engage, in lending, investment banking and/or commercial banking transactions with, and may perform services for, the Issuer and its affiliates in the ordinary course of business. In particular, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the Dealers and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of any of the Issuer or its affiliates. Certain Dealers or their affiliates that have a lending relationship with the Issuer routinely hedge their credit exposure to the Issuer consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, such Dealers and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in securities, including potentially the Notes issued under the Programme. Any such positions could adversely affect future trading prices of Notes issued under the Programme. The Dealers and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments. For the purpose of this paragraph the term "affiliates" also includes parent companies.

Product Governance under Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended)

The Pricing Supplement in respect of any Notes may include a legend entitled "MiFID II Product Governance" which will outline the target market assessment in respect of the Notes and which channels for distribution of the Notes are appropriate. Any person subsequently offering, selling or recommending the Notes (a "distributor") should take into consideration the target market assessment; however, a distributor subject to Directive 2014/65/EU (as amended, "MiFID II") is responsible for undertaking its own target market assessment in respect of the Notes (by either adopting or refining the target market assessment) and determining appropriate distribution channels.

A determination will be made by the Arranger in relation to each issue about whether, for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance rules under EU Delegated Directive 2017/593 (the "MiFID Product Governance Rules"), it is a manufacturer in respect of those Notes, but otherwise neither the Arranger nor any of its affiliates will be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

Solely by virtue of appointment as Dealer on this Programme, the Dealers (other than the Arranger) or any of their respective affiliates will not be a manufacturer for the purpose of the MiFID Product Governance Rules.

Benchmarks Regulation

Interest and/or other amounts payable under the Notes may be calculated by reference to certain reference rates. Any such reference rate may constitute a "benchmark" (each a "Benchmark" and together the "Benchmarks") for the purposes of Regulation (EU) 2016/1011 (the "EU Benchmarks Regulation"). If any such reference rate does constitute such a Benchmark, the Pricing Supplement will indicate whether or not the Benchmark is provided by an administrator included in the register of administrators and benchmarks established and maintained by the European Securities and Markets Authority ("ESMA") pursuant to Article 36 (Register of administrators and benchmarks) of the EU Benchmarks Regulation. Not every reference rate or index will fall within the scope of the EU Benchmarks

Regulation. Furthermore the transitional provisions in the EU Benchmarks Regulation may have the result that the administrator of a particular Benchmark is not required to appear in the register of administrators and benchmarks at the date of the Pricing Supplement. The registration status of any administrator under the EU Benchmarks Regulation is a matter of public record and, save where required by applicable law, the Issuer and the Guarantors do not intend to update the Pricing Supplement to reflect any change in the registration status of the administrator.

ALTERNATIVE PERFORMANCE MEASURES

This Information Memorandum (which reference includes any information incorporated by reference herein) includes alternative performance measures (as defined in the European Securities and Markets Authority guidelines (the “ESMA Guidelines”) on Alternative Performance Measures (“APMs”).

The financial information presented in this Information Memorandum refers to EBITDA, which constitutes an APM for the purposes of the ESMA Guidelines. “EBITDA” is defined as operating income before depreciation and amortisation and variations in provisions, and it therefore shows the operating result of the Group. It is calculated based on the following consolidated income statement items: Net Revenue, Other revenue, Cost of goods sold, Personnel expenses, Other operating expenses and Equity method accounting – analogous activity.

The management of the Guarantor uses EBITDA to track the performance and profitability of the group and its operating segments and technologies, as applicable, and to establish operational and strategic objectives. It is also a measure that is widely used by investors in appraising companies’ performance.

Certain additional APMs are used in, and defined by, the directors’ reports of the Guarantor for the financial years ended 31 December 2021 and 31 December 2020, both of which are incorporated by reference into this Information Memorandum (see “Documents incorporated by reference”).

Investors should note that not all companies calculate financial measures, such as the APMs presented by the Acciona Energía Group in this Information Memorandum, in the same manner and, as a result, these are not always directly comparable to performance metrics used by other companies. Additionally, the APMs presented by the Acciona Energía Group in this Information Memorandum are unaudited and have not been defined or prepared in accordance with IFRS-EU or any other accounting standards. Accordingly, these financial measures should not be seen as a substitute for measures defined according to IFRS-EU.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in the Notes issued under the Programme involves certain risks. Prior to investing in the Notes, prospective investors should carefully consider risk factors associated with any investment in the Notes, the business of the Issuer and the Guarantor and the industry in which they operate together with all other information contained in this Information Memorandum, including, in particular the risk factors described below. Words and expressions defined in the Conditions below or elsewhere in this Information Memorandum have the same meanings in this section.

The following is not an exhaustive list or explanation of all risks which investors may face when making an investment in the Notes but are the material risks that the Issuer and the Guarantor believe to be the most relevant to an assessment by a prospective investor of whether to consider an investment in the Notes. Additional risks and uncertainties relating to the Issuer and the Guarantor that are not currently known to the Issuer and the Guarantor, or that they currently deem immaterial, may individually or cumulatively also have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Issuer and the Guarantor and, if any such risk should occur, the price of the Notes may decline and investors could lose all or part of their investment. Prospective investors should consider carefully whether an investment in the Instruments is suitable for them in light of the information in this Information Memorandum (including any documents incorporated by reference herein) and their personal circumstances.

The risk factors set out below are applicable to the Guarantor and to the Acciona Energía Group, including the Issuer.

The Acciona Energía Group is affected by a series of risk factors that affect exclusively the Acciona Energía Group, as well as a series of external factors that are common to businesses of the same sector. The main risks and uncertainties faced by the Acciona Energía Group, which could affect its business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects are set out below and must be considered jointly with the information set out in the consolidated annual accounts for the financial year ended 31 December 2021.

These risks are currently considered by the Issuer and the Guarantor to be specific to the Acciona Energía Group and material for taking an informed investment decision in respect of the Notes. However, the Acciona Energía Group is subject to other risks that have not been included in this section based on the Acciona Energía Group's assessment of their probability of occurrence and the potential magnitude of their impact.

Risks in relation to the business of Acciona Energía Group

Successful implementation of Acciona Energía Group's growth plan

The Acciona Energía Group seeks to increase its energy sales in the future as it develops its pipeline. The Acciona Energía Group plans to increase its total installed capacity from approximately 11.2GW as of 31 December 2021 to 20GW by the end of 2025, mostly from Spain and other international markets, particularly, the United States, Latin America (particularly Peru and Chile) and Australia.

As of the date of this Information Memorandum, the Acciona Energía Group's pipeline consists of under construction and secured projects (projects that are under construction or for which construction is expected to commence in 2022 or 2023) and a mature pipeline comprised of (a) highly visible projects (projects for which land and grid access have been secured or are close to being secured, and discussions for offtake solutions are in advanced stage and/or there is visibility on award mechanisms) and (b) advanced development projects (projects for which land or grid access has not yet been secured but which such milestone is close to being secured). In addition, the Acciona Energía Group has identified additional opportunities and is also exploring new technologies. The Acciona Energía Group expects its pipeline to be executed gradually, increasing the speed of growth progressively.

There can be no assurance that the Acciona Energía Group's pipeline and growth plan will be realised or, if realised, will be profitable. Projects may be terminated or suspended and a project's scope and schedule may change. Material delays, cancellations or payment defaults, whether or not resulting from force majeure events such as adverse weather conditions and other events beyond the Acciona Energía Group's control, could materially and adversely affect the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

As a result of the above, the Acciona Energía Group may not be able to successfully implement its growth plan within the expected timeframe or at all. Even if a project proceeds as expected, the relevant customer (for example, a counterparty under a power purchase agreement ("PPA")) may still default and fail to pay amounts owed to the Acciona Energía Group or applicable tariffs and remuneration may be reduced as a result of unfavourable policy changes in the countries where the Acciona Energía Group operates. Moreover, any operational efficiencies or increased profitability that the Acciona Energía Group expects to realise may differ materially from its expectations, and any synergies, cost savings or productivity enhancements that the Acciona Energía Group realizes may be offset, in whole or in part, by reductions in turnover or through increases in expenses.

Implementing the Acciona Energía Group's growth plan may be more expensive, time consuming and resource intensive than anticipated and it may put considerable strain on its internal processes and capabilities. If the Acciona Energía Group is unable to manage these changes effectively, it may not be able to take advantage of market opportunities, execute its business strategy successfully or respond to competitive pressures. As a result, the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be materially and adversely affected.

The Acciona Energía Group has incurred material indebtedness and will incur substantial additional indebtedness in the future

The Acciona Energía Group's industry is capital intensive and it needs to make significant investments to develop, construct and subsequently operate its projects. In this context, the Acciona Energía Group expects the target growth of its total installed capacity to 20GW by the end of 2025 to imply a total investment of approximately €7.8 billion between 2021 and 2025.

In the near future, the Acciona Energía Group intends to fund its projects through internal cashflow generation and incremental indebtedness, and to a lesser extent, by contributions from non-controlling interests. Incremental indebtedness will be primarily in the form of corporate debt incurred by the Issuer with the guarantee of the Guarantor in the banking and capital markets and on-lent by it to the Acciona Energía Group's project companies, although non-recourse project level debt may be appropriate for certain projects due to their size, currency denomination, geography or existence of partners, among other considerations.

The Acciona Energía Group's ability to obtain additional financing, or to do it in acceptable terms, is dependent on numerous factors, including (i) general economic outlook and capital markets conditions; (ii) credit availability from banks and other financial institutions; and (iii) the Acciona Energía Group's financial performance. The Acciona Energía Group's failure to enter into new or replacement financing agreements or to obtain additional indebtedness may have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Acciona Energía Group's current and future level of indebtedness may affect its business and financial condition and, in particular: (i) the Acciona Energía Group may be required to devote a significant portion of its cash flows to repay its debt, and therefore not be able to use such resources for other purposes, including the funding of new projects; (ii) the Acciona Energía Group may become more vulnerable to adverse economic and market conditions, (iii) the Acciona Energía Group may become less flexible to react to industry changes; (iv) the Acciona Energía Group may be unable to make strategic acquisitions or undertake other corporate transactions; or (v) the Acciona Energía Group may be unable to obtain additional indebtedness, or its ability to do so on favourable terms may be limited.

Additionally, the Acciona Energía Group can give no assurance that it will be able to continue to secure financing on acceptable terms, or at all, in the future. Financial markets can be subject to periods of volatility and shortages of liquidity, the frequency and intensity of which may be exacerbated by external factors, as evidenced in 2020 by the COVID-19 pandemic. Since 2021, amid surging commodity prices and supply disruptions, inflation has soared globally, including in the United States, the European Union and many Latin American countries, a situation that has been exacerbated by the war in Ukraine. Rising inflation is leading central banks to tighten monetary policies, contributing, in a context of economic uncertainty, to higher volatility and to an increase in financing costs. If the Acciona Energía Group is unable to access capital markets or obtain other sources of finance at competitive rates, or at all, for a prolonged period, the Acciona Energía Group's cost of financing may increase, its ability to fund its operations may be significantly impaired and its strategy may need to be reassessed (including with regards to its pipeline), which could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In addition to obtaining new funding, the Acciona Energía Group may seek to refinance its existing debt. The Acciona Energía Group can give no assurance of the availability of financing on acceptable terms to refinance its existing indebtedness. If new financing is not available or proves more expensive than in the past, the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects may be materially adversely affected.

A deterioration in economic conditions worldwide and, particularly, in Spain, could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects

The Acciona Energía Group's business is influenced by the economic conditions worldwide and particularly in Spain and other countries where it operates, including, among others, the United States, Australia, Mexico, Chile, South Africa, Egypt, Italy, Portugal and Canada. Normally, robust economic growth in those areas where the Acciona Energía Group is located results in greater demand for electricity, while slow economic growth or economic contraction have an adverse impact on its demand.

The crisis derived from the coronavirus ("COVID-19") pandemic and the measures implemented by governmental authorities around the world to reduce its spread, including isolation, confinement and restriction of free movement, the closing of public and private places except for premises providing essential and healthcare services, curfews, border restrictions and a drastic reduction in transport, abruptly and significantly deteriorated economic conditions worldwide, including Spain, United States, Mexico, Poland and other countries in which the Acciona Energía Group operates, causing falls in production, volatility in financial markets and disruption of the normal flow of business operations. The gradual lifting of these measures in 2020 allowed a recovery to begin, but it was hampered in the course of 2021 by a number of factors, including the rise in the price of many raw materials, particularly energy, and the emergence of disruptions in global supply chains (or bottlenecks), which caused a significant upturn of inflationary pressures in many developed countries and emerging markets. This situation has been worsened by the Russian Federation's invasion of Ukraine in February 2022 which is increasing further commodity prices, adding to supply disruptions, exacerbating inflation, contributing to tighter financial conditions and increasing market volatility (see World Bank – Global Economic Prospects, June 2022). The Acciona Energía Group has a limited operation in Ukraine, consisting on 3 PV plants with installed capacity of up to 100 MW, and investments in neighboring Poland. However, the continuation of the war in Ukraine and the resulting international trade tensions and the persistence of the inflationary pressures could adversely affect economic and financing conditions in the countries in which the Acciona Energía Group operates, which could have a negative impact on the Acciona Energía Group's consolidated revenues and increase the Acciona Energía Group's consolidated financing costs, which in turn could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition and results of operations and prospects of the Acciona Energía Group.

The effects of COVID-19 have been mitigated by the measures adopted by governmental authorities and the diffusion of vaccines, particularly in developed countries, but the emergence of new COVID-19 variants, such as Omicron at the end of 2021, could prolong the pandemic and induce renewed economic disruptions affecting the Spanish economy or the economy of the countries in which the Acciona Energía Group operates, circumstances which could have a material adverse effect on the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Acciona Energía Group.

Difficulties in connecting to distribution or transmission grids, a lack of transmission capacity or potential upgrade costs to the transmission grid could significantly impact the Acciona Energía Group's ability to build its projects and to sell the electricity that the Acciona Energía Group generates

In order to sell the electricity generated by the Acciona Energía Group's projects, the Acciona Energía Group must connect them to the public distribution grid and, to a lesser extent, the electrical transmission grid. Connection difficulties may affect both the Acciona Energía Group's pipeline and its operating projects.

In connection with the Acciona Energía Group's pipeline, the Acciona Energía Group's ability to build a project at a given location depends significantly on its ability to connect the project to the distribution and/or transmission grids. Successful connection to the grid depends on several factors, which vary from one country to another. These factors include, among others, the scope of the transmission infrastructure construction and the reliability and presence of local transmission infrastructure. Because the sites suitable for the Acciona Energía Group's projects are in certain cases located far from the nearest distribution and/or transmission grids, the Acciona Energía Group can give no assurance that it will obtain adequate grid connections within the expected time periods and at the expected cost for the Acciona Energía Group's project pipeline. Additionally, certain governmental authorities, such as is the case in Australia and South Africa, request operators to comply with increasingly stringent technical requirements that may make it more difficult for the Acciona Energía Group to connect its projects to the distribution or transmission grids. Further, in December 2021, the Mexican government proposed a constitutional amendment restricting the production and sale of electricity by private operators, giving a monopoly to the Mexican authorities for the purchase of the electricity produced. The constitutional amendment was repealed in April 2022 but the Mexican authorities are continuing the process to reform the functioning of the Mexican electricity system.

The Acciona Energía Group's operating projects and its pipeline may be affected by a lack of available capacity in the grid, due to congestion, overproduction by connected facilities or excessive fluctuations in electricity market prices that could substantially impact the Acciona Energía Group's projects and cause reductions in plant size, delays in project implementation, increases in costs from transmission upgrades and potential forfeitures of any guarantees the Acciona Energía Group has provided.

Such a lack of capacity could also cause the grid manager to request the Acciona Energía Group to reduce its supply to the grid to below the Acciona Energía Group's regular production capacities (known as grid curtailment). Such grid curtailment requests automatically result in a loss of turnover generated by the affected projects and a reduction in their profitability.

Any of the above factors could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Acciona Energía Group's PPAs may expose it to certain risks which may affect the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects

The Acciona Energía Group's projects often sell electricity under long term PPAs with counterparties, including government actors, state-owned and non-state owned utilities and corporate offtakers. For example, in the year ended 31 December 2021, 29.7% of the Acciona Energía Group's consolidated production was sold under PPAs, respectively, compared to 29.5% in the year ended 31 December 2020.

Under the Acciona Energía Group's PPAs, the Acciona Energía Group sells power generated from its projects to the offtaker at a pre-determined price even where there is no physical delivery of energy to the customer, such as under the Acciona Energía Group's virtual (or financial) PPAs. Certain of the Acciona Energía Group's PPAs are not subject to price revisions and accordingly, if there is an industry-wide increase in prices, the Acciona Energía Group may not be able to renegotiate the terms of the PPAs to take advantage of the increased prices or may incur in losses under the Acciona Energía Group's virtual (or financial) PPAs. In addition, aggressive bids by competitors in the tenders in which the Acciona Energía Group participates may put downward pressure on the average sale price of the Acciona Energía Group's PPAs and may make it more difficult for the Acciona Energía Group to submit winning bids at prices that ensure targeted or sufficient returns.

In the event the Acciona Energía Group defaults in fulfilling its obligations under its PPAs, such as failing to supply the minimum amount of power specified in any such agreement, the Acciona Energía Group may be liable for penalties and in certain specified events, customers may decide to terminate such PPAs. Further, any failure to supply power from the scheduled commissioning date may result in a requirement to pay liquidated damages.

The Acciona Energía Group's PPAs may be terminated by the relevant counterparty, subject to the payment of penalties, under certain circumstances, including material delays in reaching the commercial operation date, lack of achievement of contracted energy volumes, unavailability of guarantees, changes in legislation not subject to mitigation measures by the relevant parties, extended force majeure events or certain rating downgrades. The termination of significant PPAs as a result of such termination, particularly with respect to the Acciona Energía Group's larger power generating assets, could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The financial performance of the Acciona Energía Group's projects is dependent on the credit quality of, and continued performance of contractual obligations by, the Acciona Energía Group's PPA counterparties. PPA counterparties may purchase less than the maximum amounts of energy committed with the Acciona Energía Group, which may affect the Acciona Energía Group's expectations and may trigger an event of default. Further, the failure of PPA counterparties to fulfil their contractual obligations to the Acciona Energía Group, whether due to insolvency or otherwise, could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Additionally, under the Acciona Energía Group's PPAs, the Acciona Energía Group's remedies in case of delays in payment by its customers may be limited. Even in those cases when the Acciona Energía Group obtains guarantees, it may not be able to fully limit exposure to counterparties and the resulting credit risk. Counterparty credit risk can increase when global or regional economies are experiencing periods of volatility, such as during the COVID-19 pandemic or currently as a result of the conflict in Ukraine and the existing supply chain tensions.

Any of the above factors could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The maintenance, refurbishment and dismantling of the Acciona Energía Group's projects involve significant risks that could result in unplanned power outages, reduced output and unanticipated investments

The operation of the Acciona Energía Group's projects involves risks that include the breakdown or failure of equipment or processes or performance below expected levels of output or efficiency. Periodically, the Acciona Energía Group experiences failures or interruptions in the operation of its turbines or substations or other material components of its projects. Such failures and performance issues can stem from a number of factors, including human error, intentional damage, power outages, fires, lack of maintenance, general wear over time and other unexpected events. Unplanned outages of generating units, including extensions of scheduled outages due to mechanical failures or other problems relating to the Acciona Energía Group's operational projects may also occur from time to time and are an inherent risk of the Acciona Energía Group's business. For example, operational performance of the Acciona Energía Group's wind farms may be affected by, among other factors, failures and breakdowns of components such as turbines, substations, export cables and array cables, and the time required to repair such failures and breakdowns, which may be affected by weather conditions and the availability of skilled personnel, vessels and spare parts. The occurrence of any of the above could cause turbines to be de-energized for a period of time that in certain circumstances may last several weeks or even months or years in the case of infrastructure with long lead times to replace or repair, such as with export cables or substations.

Unplanned outages at the Acciona Energía Group's projects typically increase its operation and maintenance ("O&M") expenses, which may not be recoverable under the relevant PPA and may reduce the Acciona Energía Group's turnover as a result of selling reduced amounts of electricity or require the Acciona Energía Group to incur significant costs, or could even lead to a default under a PPA that could result in its termination. In addition, critical equipment or parts may not always be readily available when needed, which may introduce significant downtime and delay in resuming facility operation and resulting lost turnover may not be fully compensated by O&M contracts' penalty clauses. Certain specially manufactured or designed equipment or components require significant time and expense to build and deliver, and if such components do not function as planned or are damaged, replacing them can create substantial expense for the Acciona Energía Group and generate significant downtime for the relevant facility.

The Acciona Energía Group may also be obligated to dismantle certain assets and restore the site to its original state under the terms of certain contracts signed in relation to such assets. In these situations, the Acciona Energía Group recognises a liability for the estimated current cost of dismantling the asset and restoring the site to its original condition over the accrual period, which is usually associated with the construction period of the asset. The liability for the dismantling provision represents management's best estimate of the current cost of fulfilling the obligation of the value at which a third party would be willing to assume such an obligation as of the closing date of the consolidated balance sheet. However, there is no assurance that management's estimates may be accurate, so the Acciona Energía Group may incur additional significant costs.

Higher than expected investments may be required due to changing environmental, health and safety laws and regulations (including changes in the interpretation or enforcement thereof), necessary facility repairs or unexpected events (such as natural or man-made disasters or terrorist attacks). Any unexpected failure, including failure associated with breakdowns, forced outages or any unanticipated investments at the Acciona Energía Group's facilities, including in connection with the maintenance, refurbishment and dismantling of the Acciona Energía Group's projects, could result in reduced profitability and/or jeopardise the ability of the Acciona Energía Group's projects to pay their debt or retain a PPA, meet other obligations and make distributions, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Acciona Energía Group depends on a limited number of suppliers for materials and components, in particular, with respect to its wind turbines and solar modules and are subject to risks associated with fluctuations in the costs of such materials and system components

The Acciona Energía Group obtains materials and other components for the construction of its projects, particularly turbines, from a limited number of suppliers. If the Acciona Energía Group is not able to obtain materials and components for its projects that meet its quality, quantity and cost standards on time, the Acciona Energía Group's capacity to construct a project could be interrupted and its production costs could be increased. Furthermore, even well-maintained projects may from time to time experience technical problems or breakdowns as a result of various factors including erroneous installation or malfunction of components, which may require extensive repair. Depending on the component that fails and the design of the plant parts, production capacity may be affected. There is a risk that if the appropriate spare parts are not readily available, production may be delayed. Materials and components from new suppliers may also be less suitable for the Acciona Energía Group's technology and result in its projects having a lower availability rate, which could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Additionally, the cost of wind turbines, solar modules and other system components are increasing (and may increase further in the future) due to numerous factors that are outside of the Acciona Energía Group's control, such as the increase in the costs of raw materials needed for the production of equipment for renewable energy facilities (such as steel, lithium, silicon or cobalt), anti-dumping measures in place or the adoption of any other trade measure between governments aimed at the key materials needed for the Acciona Energía Group's projects (such as the tariffs imposed in 2011 in the United States for the import of solar modules or the tariffs that may be imposed on imports from Malaysia, Thailand, Cambodia and Vietnam following the current investigation of the U.S. authorities in relation to those imports and their use of components from China) the supply chain disruptions experienced since 2021 and currently being exacerbated by the war in Ukraine, or other external events (such as the COVID-19 pandemic). These measures could increase the Acciona Energía Group's procurement costs, which could negatively affect the value of its projects or even render some of them non-viable. For example, the Acciona Energía Group has experienced significant increases in the price of wind turbines in the past, such as in 2005, as a result of the expansion in the renewable energy industry.

In the last ten years, the Acciona Energía Group sourced all of its wind turbines for new wind farms from Nordex, in which, as of the date of this Information Memorandum, Acciona holds a 33.63% equity interest outside of the Acciona Energía Group. The Acciona Energía Group maintains a cooperation agreement with Nordex that does not entail any exclusivity obligations for the Acciona Energía Group. The Acciona Energía Group's high degree of reliance on Nordex exposes it to certain risks, including, in particular, delays if the Acciona Energía Group's demand exceeds their available offer, price increases imposed by them, a limited supply of turbine maintenance services or turbine spare parts or lack of supply at all whether due to insolvency, manufacturing issues or otherwise. Any of these risks may be heightened by the fact that wind turbines are an essential part of the Acciona Energía Group's wind farms which are used throughout the life of a project, so the Acciona Energía Group is dependent on Nordex over time. Additionally, certain permits and licenses are given subject to the use of a specific type or model of wind turbine, which could make sourcing materials and components from an alternative supplier impossible or impracticable. Any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Acciona Energía Group relies on its IT infrastructure, and delays or outages in, or any potential cyber-attacks on, its IT systems and networks could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business

The Acciona Energía Group's business relies on the efficient and uninterrupted operation of its information technology ("IT") infrastructure, which includes complex and sophisticated computer, telecommunication, supervisory control, data processing, data acquisition and data monitoring systems. The Acciona Energía Group may be subject to IT failures of, and disruptions to, such systems and networks, which are used throughout the Acciona Energía Group's business, including at its highly automated plants and for the distribution and supply of power. These may be caused by issues with system updates, natural disasters, malicious cyber-attacks, accidents, power disruptions, telecommunications failures, acts of terrorism or war, computer viruses, physical or electronic breaches or similar events or disruptions. For example, the ability of the Acciona Energía Group to perform remote operation services through its Renewable Energy Control Centre ("CECOER") heavily relies on the automatization and digitalisation of the Acciona Energía Group's services and thus, any unexpected events affecting the Acciona Energía Group's information technology infrastructure could affect its ability to provide these services. Disruptions to the Acciona Energía Group's IT systems, as well as those of other energy industry participants, could severely disrupt administrative and business operations, including a loss of operational capacity and critical data. It could also result in a loss of service to customers and create significant expense to repair security breaches or system damage. Further, as well as adversely impacting business operations, a failure in the Acciona Energía Group's operations monitoring systems could lead to loss of revenue, non-compliance with contractual obligations or permit requirements and the imposition of fines or penalties. Any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Risks in relation to the financial condition of Acciona Energía Group

The Acciona Energía Group may be subject to impairment losses

The Acciona Energía Group has property, plant and equipment located in different geographical areas which are subject to different regulatory environments. In accordance with the applicable financial reporting framework, at the end of each financial year, the Acciona Energía Group assesses whether there is any indication of possible impairment or any evidence of changes in the facts or circumstances that gave rise to the previously-recognized impairment and any changes in regulations or other aspects that could modify future cash flow expectations. For example, as a result of the regulatory change that affected renewable energies in 2013, the Acciona Energía Group had to register an impairment loss in its results for the financial year ended 31 December 2013. Determining and assessing these indicators involves significant estimates and assumptions by directors and management, and any failure in such determination and assessment could materially and adversely affect the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Acciona Energía Group may be subject to interest rate risks

Interest rate risk is particularly important in relation to the financing of projects in which the project's cash flows and profitability are affected by potential changes in interest rates. The Acciona Energía Group uses floating interest rates and derivatives to actively manage interest rate risk and minimize its impact.

In 2021 and 2020, the Acciona Energía Group's loans and lines of credit accrued interest that was for the most part referenced to Euribor for financing in euros, although some of the Acciona Energía Group's debt is also referenced to other indices such as Libor (in process of transition to SOFR) for debt in U.S. dollars, WIBOR for financing in Polish zlotys and JIBAR for financing in South African rand, as the Acciona Energía Group's most relevant indices outside the Euro Zone. Further, in the context of the existing inflationary pressures experienced by global economy, including the euro area and the United States, several central banks have strengthened or announced further strengthening of monetary conditions, which should increase interest rates and financing costs (see "Risk Factors – Risk Factors in relation to the business of Acciona Energía Group – The Acciona Energía Group has incurred material indebtedness and will incur substantial additional indebtedness in the future").

As part of its growth strategy, the Acciona Energía Group intends to incur substantial additional significant indebtedness in the future to develop its business plan. As a result, it may be significantly more exposed to interest risk in the future than the exposure that it has as of the date of this Information Memorandum.

Any increase of interest rates and financing costs could hamper the ability of Acciona Energía group to obtain financing to develop its business plan and could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Acciona Energía Group may be subject to exchange rate risks

Due to the geographic reach of its business operations, the Acciona Energía Group conducts business in various currencies, which exposes it to exchange rate risk. The Acciona Energía Group is exposed to exchange rate risk primarily arising from debt assumed in foreign currencies, receivables referenced primarily to the evolution of currencies other than the euro and investments in foreign companies. To mitigate exchange rate risk, non-current assets in currencies other than the euro are financed in the same currency in which the assets are denominated and other transactions and cash flows in foreign currency are hedged.

Although the Acciona Energía Group enters into hedging arrangements to cover exchange rate risk, there can be no assurance that any current or future hedging contracts will adequately protect the Acciona Energía Group's results of operations from the effects of exchange rate fluctuations or will not result in losses which could impair its ability to successfully compete in the market. Any of these risks could be exacerbated in periods of increased volatility in exchange rates such as that experienced in 2020 as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic.

As part of its growth strategy, the Acciona Energía Group intends to significantly increase its international operations. As a result, it may be significantly more exposed to exchange rate risk in the future than it currently is.

The business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Acciona Energía Group could be materially adversely affected as a result of any of the above risks.

Risks in relation to the industry of Acciona Energía Group

Fluctuations in market electricity prices

Market electricity prices often exhibit high volatility and depend on a number of factors including, but not limited to, the level of demand, the time of day, carbon prices, the availability and cost of generating capacity available to meet demand, and the structure of the particular markets, including the rules that determine the order in which generating capacity is dispatched and factors affecting the volume of electricity that can be handled by the available transmission infrastructure at a given point in time. The prices at which the energy that the Acciona Energía Group produces may be sold in the market depend in part on the relative cost, efficiency and investment needed to develop and operate conventional energy sources (including oil, coal, natural gas and nuclear energy) and renewable energy sources such as those that the Acciona Energía Group operates. A decline in the costs of other sources of electricity, such as fossil fuels or nuclear power, could reduce the price of electricity. A significant amount of new electricity generation capacity becoming available could also reduce the price of electricity. Broader regulatory changes to the electricity trading market (such as changes to integration of transmission allocation and changes to energy trading and transmission charging) also could have an impact on electricity prices. In addition, in the Acciona Energía Group's markets that have substantial solar or wind energy capacity, the simultaneous increase in solar or wind electricity supply during periods of high resource availability may drive down market prices.

There can be no assurance that market prices will remain at levels which enable the Acciona Energía Group to maintain profit margins and desired rates of return on investment. A decline in market electricity prices could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Competition in the renewable energy markets is increasingly intense and may unfavourably affect the Acciona Energía Group

The renewable energy markets may change rapidly because of changes in customer requirements, technological innovations, prices, industry standards, government-driven actions and domestic and international economic factors. The markets for the Acciona Energía Group's business are highly competitive and are continually evolving, and the Acciona Energía Group faces significant competition in each of the markets in which it operates. Competitors frequently bid aggressively in the tenders in which the Acciona Energía Group participates, calculating their bids based on assumptions of low prices for project components, as well as low construction, maintenance, capital and other costs. Such bids may put downward pressure on the average sale price and may make it more difficult for the Acciona Energía Group to submit winning bids at prices that ensure targeted or sufficient returns, in particular to cover the debt financing of the relevant projects.

In addition, in each of the markets in which the Acciona Energía Group operates, the Acciona Energía Group faces competition from local as well as global participants, many of which benefit from extensive experience (both domestically and internationally) in the development and operation of electrical generation facilities, as well as from financial resources, technical capabilities or local awareness that may be comparable to or greater than the Acciona Energía Group's. Additionally, new competitors may decide to enter the Acciona Energía Group's market as a result of, among other factors, lower initial resource analysis and development costs in comparison with the average costs in these concepts in other energy industries. Increased competition may materially adversely affect the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The production of electricity from renewable resources depends heavily on weather conditions and on wind, solar and water resources. Further, risks relating to climate change and episodes of extreme weather events could have an adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's activity

The Acciona Energía Group invests and plans to continue to invest in projects that depend primarily on wind and, to a lesser extent, solar, hydro power and biomass resources.

The production of the Acciona Energía Group's projects depends largely on natural resources, such as wind intensity or speed, solar irradiation or rainfall. Although the Acciona Energía Group plans its projects based on meteorological historical patterns, these resources are outside of the Acciona Energía Group's control and may vary significantly over time. If unfavourable meteorological conditions were to occur, particularly over the long term, they could negatively affect the profitability of impacted projects. For example, insufficient wind, solar irradiation or rainfall could lead to a decrease in production. Additionally, the production of the Acciona Energía Group's projects is also affected by seasonality. For example, the Acciona Energía Group's solar photovoltaic ("solar PV") plants tend to produce less electricity during the shorter daylight hours in the winter.

In addition, risks relating to climate change or to extreme weather conditions could significantly affect the Acciona Energía Group's projects and business, or the business of the Acciona Energía Group's electricity purchasers. To the extent that climate change causes variations in temperatures, wind resources and weather, causes an increase in average cloud cover or increases the intensity or frequency of extreme weather events, it may have an adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's projects and business. As a result of extreme weather conditions, the Acciona Energía Group has experienced leaks in hydro power plants or damage to its turbines due to strong wind intensity, among others.

If any of the above risks were to materialize, the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be materially adversely affected.

Legal and Regulatory Risks

Business in a highly regulated environment and the need to obtain permits, licenses and authorizations to carry out the Acciona Energía Group's activities

The Acciona Energía Group is subject to extensive regulation that governs the performance of many of its activities in the countries where the Acciona Energía Group operates, including for the construction, development and operation of wind farms, solar plants and other power plants or the awarding and operation of concessions, and also the remuneration that the Acciona Energía Group can obtain from those activities. In addition, the Acciona Energía Group is subject to significant demands with respect to obtaining and complying with the requirements of permits, licenses and authorizations, which may take the form of urban planning authorisations (such as construction permits), mandatory environmental impact assessments or studies, production and operation authorisations, authorisations to connect to the grid and other specific authorisations related to the presence of protected sites in proximity to the Acciona Energía Group's projects (such as archaeological sites, historic buildings, military or nuclear installations and forests). This exposes the Acciona Energía Group to costs and liabilities relating to, among others, the Acciona Energía Group's operations and the management of its projects.

Further, national governments and local authorities may, depending on the country, have a high degree of discretion in issuing any required permits, licenses and authorizations and they may exercise their discretion unpredictably. In addition, the multitude of government agencies involved may make the process of obtaining these permits, licenses and authorisations long, complex and expensive. Moreover, once granted, permits, licenses and authorisations may be subject to challenge by local residents and associations, which may argue that the installations will damage the landscape and biodiversity or cause noise pollution. Such opposition may extend the length of the development period or force the Acciona Energía Group to abandon certain projects.

Permitting issues are particularly relevant to the Acciona Energía Group's pipeline projects as they may result in delays in the development and construction of the Acciona Energía Group's projects, increased costs or the need to halt the development of a project. If the Acciona Energía Group fails to obtain the permits required for one or more of the projects that it has in its pipeline, the Acciona Energía Group may not be able to recoup all or some of the costs that it may have incurred in the project development stage, or it may not be able to find alternative projects to implement its growth strategy, any of which could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. Additionally, the Acciona Energía Group's failure to comply or ensure compliance of its installations with any applicable laws and regulations, or to maintain any required licenses, permits or other authorisations, may result in sanctions by regulatory authorities, impediments by grid managers to connect the Acciona Energía Group's projects to the grid and/or the halting or temporary shutdown of projects that are already in operation. In addition, any breach of the Acciona Energía Group's regulatory obligations, or even incidents that do not amount to a breach, could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's reputation. Any of the foregoing could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Unfavourable changes in regulations or government policies in support of renewable energies could significantly affect the Acciona Energía Group's business

The Acciona Energía Group's business and, in general, renewable energy markets, including the development, construction and operation of projects, depend to a significant extent on the continued support of governmental and local authorities. Depending on the country, this support may take the form of state commitments and plans for renewable energy production, direct or indirect subsidies to operators, purchase obligations at feed-in tariff rates, payments of mandatory rates through feed-in premiums or in connection with tender processes, pricing rules for electricity produced from renewable resources, renewable energy supply quotas imposed on non-state professional consumers, the issuance of tradable renewable energy certificates, priority access to the distribution and transmission grids and tax levy exemptions and incentives. These policies and mechanisms typically enhance the commercial and financial viability of renewable energy projects and often make it easier for developers to secure financing.

A number of factors could result in the reduction or discontinuation of government policies in support of renewable energy in the different jurisdictions in which the Acciona Energía Group operates, including pressure to improve the competitiveness of renewable energy products to ensure their competitiveness on a non-subsidized basis which may lead to levels of government support to be gradually phased out; political developments which could lead to a deterioration in the conditions for support for renewable energies; and legal challenges to subsidy regimes for renewable energy generation on constitutional and other grounds.

The Acciona Energía Group also sells electricity that is subject to feed-in tariffs. For example, in the year ended 31 December 2021, 9.1% of the Acciona Energía Group's consolidated production was sold subject to feed-in tariffs (2020: 8.9%). Unfavourable changes, or uncertainty, in feed-in tariffs could have a material adverse effect on the profitability and/or viability of the Acciona Energía Group's affected projects, especially if the resulting purchase prices are not high enough to cover a project's cost and ensure an adequate return on investment.

Any reversal of, or unfavourable changes to, governmental incentive policies, or interpretive issues and uncertainties around their implementation, or any decrease in the number of public calls for tenders or in the volumes of energy allocated through them, could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In addition, public authorities in Spain and in other countries in which the Acciona Energía Group is present are currently considering, or may consider in the future, new regulations or other measures to limit the increase of the price of electricity, either directly or through a limitation of the price of other energy sources, such as natural gas, or the market price of emission rights. These new regulations or measures could reduce or impact in other ways the revenues of the Acciona Energía Group from the sale of electricity which could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

In the past year Europe has experienced a significant increase in the price of energy, a situation that has been exacerbated by the war in Ukraine. European authorities have been very active in designing measures to tackle the impact of this increase for domestic and industrial consumers. Spain opted to implement its own separate packs of measures to address this situation. Some of them – in particular those aimed to limit the so-called wind fall profits– have altered significantly Acciona Energía Group's operative for selling electricity. The most relevant of these measures are

- Gas clawback (as set out by RDL 17/2021 amended by RDL 23/2021 and RDL 6/2022): this regulation sets a floor on gas price on 20€/MWh. The difference must be reimbursed by the electricity generators. This measure will apply until 31 December 2022.
- Production cost adjustment mechanism for the reduction of the electricity wholesale price in the Iberian market (the so called 'Iberian exception', RDL 10/2022): this mechanism restricts the price of the electricity applicable to consumers whose tariffs are exposed to wholesale pool price. This measure will apply until 31 May 2023.

The impact of these measures (lower electricity prices) is mitigated in the case of Acciona Energía Group by certain legal exception, mainly on gas clawback: renewables under regulated remunerated scheme and hedged long term contracts are to some extent out of the scope of the measure. This applies to Acciona Energía Group which sell energy in a significant proportion under long term agreements such as PPAs. Additionally, the economic impact of these measures is partially offset by the increase in revenues as a result of the high energy market prices.

The Spanish authorities are currently considering other measures to limit the price of energy (CO2 clawback, tax on extra-profits for energy companies). Any of these measures, if approved, or any other legal or regulatory measures that may be approved to limit the price of energy, could have an impact on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Acciona Energía Group is subject to tax risks

The Acciona Energía Group currently benefits from favourable or incentive-based tax regimes in some of the countries where it operates, including Spain, which are designed to facilitate the development and to promote the use of renewable energy sources and related investments. Conversely, the Acciona Energía Group is subject to specific taxes applicable to companies operating in the energy industry and to local taxes applicable to the construction of energy-generating facilities or the use of electrical grids. The availability and extent of these tax incentives and specific taxes, respectively, may evolve as a result of changes in political and social sensitivity to environmental concerns and increasing maturity and profitability of the renewable energy markets as a whole. Any decrease in these tax incentives, or any increase in specific taxes and local taxes, could adversely affect the Acciona Energía Group and result in a potential decrease in the relative competitiveness of renewable energy companies.

More generally, the Acciona Energía Group is subject to tax laws and regulations in all the jurisdictions in which its subsidiaries are located or operate, and such laws and regulations do not provide clear-cut or definitive guidelines in certain respects. The Acciona Energía Group cannot guarantee that its interpretation of such laws and regulations will not be questioned by the relevant tax authorities. Any failure to comply with such laws or regulations, whether derived from an inadequate technical analysis or otherwise, may result in reassessments, late payment interests, fines and penalties. Furthermore, tax laws and regulations may change and there may be changes in their interpretation and application by the relevant authorities, potentially with retroactive effect, especially in the context of international and European initiatives (such as by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development, the G-20 or the European Union).

In addition, the Acciona Energía Group may not be able to use deferred tax assets as a result of changes in tax laws and regulations in the various jurisdictions in which the Acciona Energía Group operates, or otherwise.

The occurrence of any of the preceding factors could result in an increase in the Acciona Energía Group's tax burden, damage the Acciona Energía Group's reputation and have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

The Acciona Energía Group is subject to litigation and other legal, administrative and regulatory proceedings

The Acciona Energía Group is subject to the risk of legal claims and proceedings and regulatory enforcement actions in various jurisdictions arising in the ordinary course of our business and otherwise. See "Description of the Guarantor – Litigation".

The Acciona Energía Group is involved in legal proceedings from time to time and this situation may be exacerbated by any future growth of its operational portfolio. For example, the Acciona Energía Group has, and may in the future have additional, partners in projects who may initiate legal proceedings against the Acciona Energía Group if it fails to perform its obligations under the contracts that the Acciona Energía Group has or may have, with them, as applicable. Claims brought against the Acciona Energía Group could include, among others, claims for late completion of the projects and claims for failure to deliver the agreed amount of energy.

The results of legal, administrative and regulatory proceedings cannot be predicted with certainty. Even if such proceedings are ultimately resolved in favour of the Acciona Energía Group, they may divert a significant amount of its resources and employees' time or result in negative publicity, to the detriment of its business and reputation. Alternatively, such proceedings may result in substantial monetary damages, regulatory sanctions or even criminal sanctions, as well as damage to its reputation. There is no assurance that the results of current or future legal, administrative or regulatory proceedings or actions will not materially harm the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects. nor can it guarantee that it will not incur losses in connection with current or future legal, administrative or regulatory proceedings or actions that exceed any provisions that it may have set aside in respect of such proceedings or actions or that exceed any available insurance coverage, any of which could have a material adverse effect on Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

Risks in relation to the credit rating of the Guarantor

Fitch has assigned a long-term corporate credit rating of "BBB-" and a short-term rating of "F3" to the Guarantor and a "F3" rating to the Programme and DBRS Ratings GmbH ("DBRS") has assigned a long-term corporate credit rating of "BBB (high)" and a short-term rating of "R-2 (high)" to the Guarantor.

There is no guarantee that the credit rating currently assigned to the Guarantor or the Programme, or any rating assigned to Notes issued under the Programme, will be maintained over time, as credit ratings are periodically reviewed and updated. Therefore, these credit ratings may suffer downgrades and may be suspended or withdrawn at any time by the relevant credit rating agency. Such ratings may not reflect the potential impact of all risks discussed herein, and other factors that may affect the value of any Notes. A rating is not a recommendation to buy, sell or hold securities and may be subject to suspension, reduction or withdrawal at any time by the assigning rating agency. In addition, credit ratings affect the cost as well as other conditions in relation to the financing of the Acciona Energía Group. Any downgrade of the credit rating of the Guarantor would increase the borrowing costs of the Acciona Energía Group and could restrict or limit the access to financial markets, which could adversely affect the liquidity of the Acciona Energía Group and could have a material adverse effect on the Acciona Energía Group's business, financial condition and results of operation.

Risks in relation to the Notes

There is no active trading market for the Notes

Notes issued under the Programme will be new securities which may not be widely distributed and for which there is currently no active trading market or such active trading market may not develop.

Accordingly, there is no assurance as to the development or liquidity of any trading market for any particular issue of Notes.

The Issue price may be greater than the market value of the Notes

The Issue Price specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement may be more than the market value of the Notes as at the Issue Date, and the price, if any, at which the Dealers or any other person is willing to purchase the Notes in secondary market transactions is likely to be lower than the Issue Price. In particular, the Issue Price may take into account amounts with respect to commissions relating to the issue and sale of the Notes as well as amounts relating to the hedging of the Issuer's obligations under the Notes, and secondary market prices are likely to exclude such amounts. In addition, whilst the proprietary pricing models of the Dealers are often based on well recognised financial principles, other market participants' pricing models may differ or produce a different result.

Global Notes held in a clearing system

Notes issued under the Programme may be represented by one or more Global Notes. The Global Notes will be deposited with a common depositary or common safekeeper for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg. Except in the circumstances described in the relevant Global Note, investors will not be entitled to receive Definitive Notes. Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg will maintain records of the beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

While the Notes are represented by one or more Global Notes, investors will be able to trade their beneficial interests only through Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg and the Issuer will discharge its payment obligations under such Notes by making payments to the common depositary or, in the case of Global Notes in New Global Note form, the common service provider for Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg for distribution to their account holders. A holder of a beneficial interest in a Global Note must rely on the procedures of Euroclear and/or Clearstream, Luxembourg to receive payments under their relevant Notes. The Issuer has no responsibility or liability for the records relating to, or payments made in respect of, beneficial interests in the Global Notes.

Holders of beneficial interests in the Global Notes will not have a direct right to take enforcement action against the Issuer under the relevant Notes but will have to rely upon their rights under the deed of covenant dated 19 July 2022 (the "Deed of Covenant").

Notes which are linked to Benchmarks

The Euro Interbank Offered Rate ("EURIBOR") and other interest rates or other types of rates and indices which are deemed to be benchmarks are the subject of ongoing national and international regulatory discussions and proposals for reform. Some of these reforms are already effective whilst others are still to be implemented.

The EU Benchmarks Regulation applies, subject to certain transitional provisions, to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the EU. Regulation (EU) No. 2016/1011 as it forms part of domestic law of the United Kingdom by virtue of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (the "UK Benchmarks Regulation") applies to the provision of benchmarks, the contribution of input data to a benchmark and the use of a benchmark, within the UK. The EU Benchmarks Regulation or the UK Benchmarks Regulation, as applicable, could have a material impact on any Notes linked to EURIBOR or another benchmark rate or index, in particular, if the methodology or other terms of the benchmark are changed in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmarks Regulation or UK Benchmarks Regulation, and such changes could (amongst other things) have the effect of reducing or increasing the rate or level, or affecting the volatility of the published rate or level, of the benchmark. More broadly, any of the international, national or other proposals for reform, or the general increased regulatory scrutiny of benchmarks, could increase the costs and risks of administering or otherwise participating in the setting of a benchmark and complying with any such regulations or requirements. Such factors may have the effect of discouraging market participants from continuing to administer or contribute to certain "benchmarks", trigger changes in the rules or methodologies used in certain "benchmarks" or lead to the discontinuance or unavailability of quotes of certain "benchmarks".

As an example of such benchmark reforms, on 21 September 2017, the European Central Bank announced that it would be part of a new working group tasked with the identification and adoption of a “risk free overnight rate” which can serve as a basis for an alternative to current benchmarks used in a variety of financial instruments and contracts in the euro area. On 13 September 2018, the working group on Euro risk-free rates recommended the new Euro short-term rate (“€STR”) as the new risk-free rate for the euro area. The €STR was published for the first time on 2 October 2019. Although EURIBOR has subsequently been reformed in order to comply with the terms of the EU Benchmarks Regulation, it remains uncertain as to how long it will continue in its current form, or whether it will be further reformed or replaced with €STR or an alternative benchmark.

The elimination of the EURIBOR benchmark or any other benchmark, or changes in the manner of administration of any benchmark, could require or result in an adjustment to the interest provisions of the Notes, or result in other consequences, in respect of any Notes linked to such Benchmark (including but not limited to Floating Rate Notes whose interest rates are linked to EURIBOR which may, depending on the manner in which the EURIBOR benchmark is to be determined under the terms and conditions, result in the effective application of a fixed rate based on the rate which applied in the previous period when EURIBOR was available). Amendments to the terms and conditions of the Notes and/or relevant fall-back provisions may be required to reflect such discontinuance and there can be no assurance that any such amendments will fully or effectively mitigate all future relevant interest rate risks. Any change in the performance of a Benchmark or its discontinuation, could have a material adverse effect on any Notes referencing or linked to such Benchmark.

The Issuer may redeem the Notes for tax reasons

An optional redemption feature of Notes is likely to limit their market value. During any period when the Issuer may elect to redeem Notes, the market value of those Notes generally will not rise substantially above the price at which they can be redeemed. This also may be true prior to any redemption period.

The Issuer may be expected to redeem Notes if it has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Notes as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction) which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the issue date of the relevant Notes and such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it.

Potential investors should consider the reinvestment risks in light of other investments available at the time any Notes are so redeemed.

Risks in relation to Spanish taxation

Under Spanish Law 10/2014 of 26 June 2014 on organisation, supervision and solvency of credit institutions and Royal Decree 1065/2007, of 27 July 2007 (“Royal Decree 1065/2007”), as amended by Royal Decree 1145/2011, of 29 July (“Royal Decree 1145/2011”), income payments in respect of the Notes will be made by the Issuer free of withholding tax in Spain if certain information is received by it in a timely manner. On 19 July 2022 the Issuer, the Guarantor and The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch (the “Issue and Paying Agent”) have entered into an amended and restated issue and paying agency agreement (the “Issue and Paying Agency Agreement”) where they have arranged certain procedures to facilitate the collection of information concerning the Notes. The Issuer will withhold Spanish withholding tax from any payment in respect of any outstanding principal amount of the Notes (as applicable) as to which the required information has not been provided and will not gross up payments in respect of any such withholding tax. The Issue and Paying Agency Agreement provides that the Issue and Paying Agent will, to the extent applicable, comply with the relevant procedures to facilitate the collection of information concerning the Notes. The procedures may be modified, amended or supplemented, to, among other reasons, reflect a change in applicable Spanish law, regulation, ruling or interpretation thereof or to reflect a change in applicable clearing system rules or procedures or to add procedures for one or more new clearing systems. See “Taxation – Taxation in Spain”. Neither the Issuer, the Guarantor nor the Dealers assume any responsibility thereof.

Royal Decree 1145/2011 amended Royal Decree 1065/2007 to provide that any payment of interest made in respect of securities originally registered with a non-Spanish clearing house recognised by Spanish legislation or by the legislation of another OECD country will be made free of any withholding on account of Spanish taxes provided that certain information about the Notes is received by the Issuer. The Issuer considers that any payments in respect of the Notes will be made free of withholding on account of Spanish taxes provided that the relevant information about the Notes is submitted by the Issue and Paying Agent to it in a timely manner.

If at any stage the Spanish tax authorities adopt a different position as to the application by the Issuer of withholding to payments made to Spanish residents (individuals and entities subject to Spanish Corporate Income Tax), the Issuer would be bound by that administrative criterion and would need to make the appropriate withholding immediately thereafter. In such event, the Issuer would not pay additional amounts. Should the Spanish tax authorities adopt such a position, identification of holders may be required and the procedures, if any, for the collection of relevant information would be applied by the Issuer to the extent required so that it can comply with its obligations under the applicable legislation as interpreted by the Spanish tax authorities. If procedures for the collection of information relating to holders were to apply, all holders would be informed of such new procedures and their implications.

In the case of Notes held by Spanish resident individuals (and under certain circumstances by Spanish entities subject to Spanish Corporate Income Tax) and deposited with a Spanish resident entity acting as depository or custodian, payments in respect of the Notes may be subject to withholding by such depository or custodian, currently at a 19 per cent. rate. See "Taxation – Taxation in Spain".

Corporate Structure

The following diagram reflects the main subsidiaries of the Acciona Energía Group as of the date of this Information Memorandum:

- (1) Company through which (with its subsidiaries) the Acciona Energía Group undertakes a multi-technological portfolio of renewable energy projects.
- (2) Company through which, together with its subsidiaries, the Acciona Energía Group undertake onshore wind projects.
- (3) Company through which, together with its subsidiaries, the Acciona Energía Group undertake hydroelectric projects.
- (4) Financing company.

History

The Acciona Group was created in 1997 following a strategic merger between Entrecanales y Távora, S.A. and Cubiertas y MZOV, S.A. Entrecanales y Távora, S.A. was founded in 1931 as a civil constructor company specialized in complex projects (such as the remodeling of the San Telmo bridge in Seville following recommendations by H.R.H. King Alfonso XIII), while Cubiertas y MZOV, S.A. was a construction company with roots that relate back to a railway company founded in Galicia in 1861.

The Guarantor was incorporated in 2008 in order to hold and develop the historical renewable energy business of the Acciona Group, that commenced in the beginning of the 1990s, in the context of a major strategic transformation initiated by the Acciona Group with the aim to evolve from a Spanish contractor into an international renewable energy and infrastructure leader. The Acciona Energía Group is the result of the integration of several companies, assets and partners, including in connection with the acquisition of Corporación Energía Hidroeléctrica de Navarra, S.A. (currently, Acciona Generación Renovable, S.A.) from 2003 through 2005 and Corporación Eólica, S.A. in 2006, as well as the integration of certain assets owned by Endesa in 2009, all of which has allowed the Acciona Energía Group to become a major green player with vast experience in the renewable energy sector.

In 1991, the Acciona Energía Group developed its first small hydro power plant in Spain and in 1993, it started the construction of its first wind plant located in Tarifa (Spain), which became operative in 1995. In 2001, the Acciona Energía Group commissioned its first solar PV and biomass plants, both of them located in Navarra (Spain). In 2004, a period of high growth and internationalization started, which led the Acciona Energía Group to further diversify its portfolio with, for example, its first concentrated solar power (“CSP” or “concentrated solar power”) plant in Nevada (United States) in 2007. In 2016, the Acciona Energía Group started another growth period with the project El Romero (246MWp), in Chile. In 2017, the Acciona Energía Group was the first in Spain to integrate batteries for energy storage in a grid-connected wind farm and, in 2019, the Acciona Energía Group completed the first repowering project in Spain in the wind farm El Cabrito (30MW).

In 2015, as part of its commitment to decarbonization, the Acciona Energía Group committed to becoming carbon neutral at the Paris climate summit and targeted a total investment of more than €2,000 million to reach a total installed capacity of 10,500MW by 2020, which has been accomplished and exceeded. In the same year, the Acciona Energía Group was recognised as the greenest utility company in the world, reaching the first position in the ranking of Top 100 Green Utilities developed by Energy Intelligence. Since then, the Acciona Energía Group has maintained the top position in this ranking. In 2016, the Acciona Energía Group became a carbon-neutral company.

In 2016, AWP, an Acciona Group company that developed wind turbines using proprietary technology, merged with the German company Nordex, a publicly-listed company and a leading global manufacturer of onshore wind turbine systems, in which Acciona currently holds a 33.63% equity interest (outside of the Acciona Energía Group). Nordex is currently Acciona Energía Group’s main wind turbine supplier.

Geographical footprint

The business of the Acciona Energía Group is diversified across jurisdictions. The most significant market for the Acciona Energía Group is Spain, but it is also well-positioned in strategic countries such as the United States, Australia, Mexico and Chile which, together with Spain, represented 79% of the Acciona Energía Group’s consolidated installed capacity as of 31 December 2021. The Acciona Energía Group is also present in other markets such as Canada, Italy, Portugal, South Africa, Egypt or India among others.

The Acciona Energía Group classifies its operations by geographical segment as follows: (i) Spain; (ii) Rest of Europe; (iii) America; (iv) Australia; and (v) Other zones. The table below shows the number of operating projects by geography and technology as of 31 December 2021:

Integrated value chain

The Acciona Energía Group operates a fully-integrated value chain and seeks to add value through each of the phases of a project: (i) project development; (ii) project structuring; (iii) engineering and construction; (iv) supply chain; (v) O&M and asset management; and (vi) energy management. The Acciona Energía Group believes that having in-house integrated capabilities allows it to obtain economies of scale that result in increased margins, asset quality, agility and asset expertise.

Project development

The Acciona Energía Group primarily pursues greenfield projects (completely new projects that have to be developed since the identification of the specific site) or acquire projects in an early stage of development. In a greenfield project, a site is identified, and a project developed and constructed. Greenfield projects generally allow a higher return on the capital invested, and therefore are the preferred approach whenever the appropriate conditions exist.

In certain countries, such as those in Africa and the Middle East, the Acciona Energía Group also pursues projects by means of co-development or joint venture agreements.

The Acciona Energía Group typically identifies new sites taking into account energy resources, meteorological conditions, topography, access to existing and planned electricity transmission systems, size, availability and ownership of land and possible environmental and regulatory constraints. Increasingly, business origination derives from a joint strategy with customers. In evaluating a project the existence of current or future demand of potential corporate and public offtakers is very relevant and in most cases determines the continuity of the development efforts in a particular project.

The Acciona Energía Group seeks to obtain land rights for the development of its projects, to start the arrangements to close the chosen offtake alternative (for instance, negotiating the PPAs with potential offtakers), to manage the interconnection and transmission/distribution processes and obtain the permits that are required prior to the construction of the projects, including applicable environmental and land-use permits, licenses, concessions and project approval. These vary by country, and, in some cases, by region within a country. The Acciona Energía Group generally leases the land on which projects are constructed.

Once the relevant permits have been obtained and the offtake solutions are secured the investment decision is made and the engineering and construction process begins.

The timing of each of these phases varies significantly depending on multiple factors, including applicable regulations, the jurisdiction where the project is located, the technology and the topography, among others.

Project structuring

The renewable energy industry is capital intensive and the Acciona Energía Group needs to make significant investments to develop, construct and subsequently operate its projects. In the near future, the Acciona Energía Group intends to fund its projects through net cash flows from operations (net of dividends) and incremental net cash flows from financing, and to a lesser extent, by contributions from minority shareholders. Incremental indebtedness will be primarily in the form of corporate debt in the banking and capital markets held by the Issuer, although non-recourse project level debt may be appropriate for certain projects due to their size, currency denomination, geography or existence of partners, amongst other considerations.

Engineering and construction

The engineering and construction teams have two major responsibilities. For projects in the development phase (before the project has received investment approval), they prepare a technical memo, which includes the project's expected investment, construction schedule and payment milestones and energy production, a technical risk assessment, and any other relevant technical information impacting the project. Some typical activities during this phase include, among others: (i) the receipt of basic/permits engineering; (ii) the establishment of a procurement strategy; (iii) the preparation of a project organizational chart; (iv) the performance of a cost analysis; (v) the preparation of a grid code assessment; (vi) the preparation of an energy resource and production assessment and (vii) the preparation of a risk assessment. The Acciona Energía Group leads the design of the project, identifying the best technology solution for a given site estimating project costs from very early stage.

Once the project has received investment approval, which typically happens when an offtake solution is secured, the engineering and construction teams effectively manage the construction until the assets are transferred to the production area, aiming to perform their tasks in accordance with the technical memo. Typical activities during this phase include, among others: (i) the preparation of a procurement plan; (ii) the preparation of a health and safety management plan; (iii) the preparation of a detailed engineering plan (either internally or by a third party); (iv) the selection of contractors; (v) site mobilization and full supervision of the contractors engaged in the project (civil works, electrical works, main components installation, grid connection (substation and power lines), etc.); (vi) the commissioning of the project, including all of the performance and grid code testing; and (vii) the transfer of the assets to the production area.

The construction process is outsourced to third parties, typically using multi-contracting solutions, and risks resulting from delays, defects and accidents covered by indemnities.

Supply chain

The supply chain department works closely with both the engineering and construction teams during the construction phase and with the O&M department during the operation phase in order to ensure that time, budget and performance requirements are met. The Acciona Energía Group has well-established procurement processes based on certain pre-qualification criteria and a clear focus on quality. In connection with onshore wind, most wind turbines for new wind farms are sourced from Nordex.

O&M and asset management

The O&M and asset management team provides a comprehensive range of services and solutions to maximise the availability rate, load factor and lifespan of projects, including reporting and analysis, monitoring and supervision, inspections, preventive project maintenance, repair and replacement of equipment, site management and incident response. Assets are operated through CECOER, one of the largest renewables control centers in the world, which allows the Acciona Energía Group to supervise projects on a project-by-project basis. CECOER is fully interconnected with the O&M and asset management team through advanced digitalisation tools, adjusting generation to their instructions in the most efficient way and in real time. CECOER operates both the Acciona Energía Group's and third parties' renewable energy generation assets.

Energy management

The Acciona Energía Group seeks to optimise its energy management by applying global energy management processes and policies with a portfolio approach, and centralised standards complemented by local market knowledge adapted to the specificities of each market.

The Acciona Energía Group sells energy in the pool market (subject to regulated prices, feed-in tariffs or in the wholesale market) or through bilateral PPAs. The Acciona Energía Group seeks to maintain a diversified combination of different offtake options and energy sales mechanisms.

In the year ended 31 December 2021, 28 % of the consolidated production of the Acciona Energía Group was sold under PPAs, 27 % was sold subject to regulated prices and 9 % was sold subject to feed-in-tariffs, with the remaining 36 % being derived from sales on the wholesale market.

Multi-Technological Approach

The Acciona Energía Group operates multi-technological projects, including onshore wind, solar PV, hydro power and biomass and concentrated solar power. The Acciona Energía Group has also been pioneer in Spain in integrating storage in grid-connected wind and solar PV and floating solar PV.

The table below summarises the consolidated production of the projects of the Acciona Energía Group during the periods indicated:

Wind

The Acciona Energía Group is a leading player in the development, construction, operation and maintenance of onshore wind power facilities, having started the construction of the first wind farm in Tarifa (Spain) in 1993. Its leading position and industry knowledge are partly driven by the Acciona Energía Group's extensive experience as a global supplier of products and services in all areas of the value chain, including as pioneers in the development of wind turbines using Nordex's proprietary technology, and concrete towers of up to 120 meters.

As of 31 December 2021, the Acciona Energía Group owned 8,787 MW of total installed capacity in 231 wind farms with more than 6,507 wind turbines located in 14 countries.

Most relevant projects include Waubra, located in Victoria (Australia), with a total installed capacity of 192MW and 128 turbines, Eurus, located in Oaxaca (Mexico), with a total installed capacity of 250.5MW and 167 wind turbines, Gouda, located in Western Cape (South Africa), with a total installed capacity of 138MW and 46 turbines, San Roman, located in Texas (United States), with a total installed capacity of 93MW and 31 turbines, El Cortijo, located in Reynosa, Tamaulipas (Mexico), with a total installed capacity of 183MW and 61 wind turbines, San Gabriel and Tolpan Sur, located in the Araucanía region (Chile) with a total installed capacity of 183MW and 61 wind turbines and a total installed capacity of 84MW and 28 wind turbines, respectively.

Solar PV

The Acciona Energía Group is a key player in the installation and operation of solar PV plants and a leading international player in building utility-scale assets worldwide. It has been The Acciona Energía Group has been in the solar PV industry in Spain since 2011 when it built its first solar PV plant in Tudela (Navarra) and have since then become a leader in the community PV concept in Spain. A community solar project is a solar power plant whose electricity is shared by more than one property allowing members of a community to share the benefits of solar power even if they cannot or prefer not to install solar panels on their property. Additionally, in 2020 the Acciona Energía Group built the first floating solar PV plant connected to the grid in Spain.

As of 31 December 2021, the Acciona Energía Group owned 1,460 MW of total installed capacity in 14 solar PV plants located in 7 countries.

Most relevant projects include Amareleja, located in Moura (Portugal), with a total installed capacity of 48.5MWp and 262,080 photovoltaic modules, Sishen, located in Northern Cape (South Africa), with a total installed capacity of 94.3MWp and 319,000 photovoltaic modules, El Romero, located in the Atacama region (Chile), with a total installed capacity of 246MWp and 776,000 photovoltaic modules, Puerto Libertad, located in Puerto Libertad, Sonora (Mexico), with a total installed capacity of 405MWp and 1,222,800 photovoltaic panels or the Sierra Brava floating photovoltaic plant, located in the Sierra Brava reservoir, Extremadura (Spain), with a total installed capacity of 1,125kWp, five different floating systems and 3,000 photovoltaic modules. This floating photovoltaic plant offers higher performance than a non-floating plant due to the lower environmental temperature, the availability of a flat surface, the lack of shade and its easier installation. This technology can also be associated with hydroelectric plants, with which the plant can share electrical infrastructure, providing the plant with greater flexibility. Plants of this type are suitable for regions where there is little land available and are attractive in areas with weak electricity grids. The panels, which are mounted on top of floating structures (rafts or pontoons), also reduce evaporation and improve water quality by suppressing algal growth.

Hydro power

Hydro power has been a part of the power generation portfolio of the Acciona Energía Group since 1990. The incorporation of hydro power assets acquired from Endesa in 2009 boosted the hydro power capacity of the Acciona Energía Group. As of 31 December 2021, the Acciona Energía Group owned 873 MW of total installed capacity in 76 hydro power plants in seven Spanish regions.

Most relevant projects include Ip (Spain), located in Canfranc, Huesca (Spain), with a total installed capacity of 88.9MW (generating) or 99MW (pumping) and Seira, located in La Ribagorza, Huesca (Spain), with a total installed capacity of 36.7MW, a run-of-the-river plant of historical importance which was commissioned in 1918 and has been fully operational for more than 100 years.

Biomass and concentrated solar power

The Acciona Energía Group has substantial experience in the design, construction and operation of large biomass plants for largescale electricity generation. In the year ended 31 December 2021 the Acciona Energía Group produced a total of 543 GWh from its biomass and concentrated solar power plants.

Most relevant projects include Sangüesa, located in Navarra (Spain), with a total installed capacity of 30MW or the Nevada Solar One CSP plant in Boulder City, Nevada (United States), with a total installed capacity of 64MW and 182,000 parabolic mirrors.

Storage

The Acciona Energía Group is a pioneer in Spain in integrating storage in grid-connected wind and solar PV plants.

The Barasoain project, located in Navarra (Spain), a battery-based wind energy storage plant, is the first of this type to be integrated into a grid-connected wind farm in Spain.

New solutions

In addition to its core technologies, the Acciona Energía Group pushes for new generation solutions such as green hydrogen, storage, electric vehicle charging, floating technologies and energy efficiency.

In 2021 the Acciona Energía Group produced Spain's first green hydrogen molecules for industrial use on the island of Majorca, and established a joint venture with Plug Power for the Iberian green hydrogen market. In the field of electrification, the Acciona Energía Group expanded into the electric vehicle charging business through the acquisition of leading Spanish company Cargacoche.

The Acciona Energía Group offers self-consumption solutions through renewable energy plants customized for each client, both connected and isolated from the grid, close to the point of consumption. The Acciona Energía Group offers microgrids solutions designed to guarantee supply and minimise energy costs, combining renewable technologies and battery storage. In 2021, the Acciona Energía Group commissioned a microgrid for Schneider Electric in Puente la Reina (Spain) that includes 852 kWp of photovoltaic energy, five charging points for electric vehicles and 80 kWh of battery storage.

The Acciona Energía Group offers integrated use management that is both sustainable and digitised, covering demand and supply. In 2021, the Acciona Energía Group was awarded an energy services contract in Gijón, Spain, and entered the French market with the acquisition of the energy efficiency company Equinov. The Acciona Energía Group manages more than 3,000GWh that are monitored and optimised every year.

Sustainability

The Acciona Energía Group is committed to maintaining a strong environmental, social and governance (“ESG”) proposition. In 2015, it was recognised as the greenest utility company in the world, reaching the first position in the ranking of Top 100 Green Utilities developed by Energy Intelligence and it has maintained the top position in this ranking every year since then. In 2021, the Acciona Energía Group received the top ESG rating in the global energy sector (86/100) in a cross-sector assessment conducted by S&P Global Ratings. In line with its commitment to the full decarbonisation of the economy, the Acciona Energía Group has been carbon neutral since 2016 by reducing its emissions and offsetting its remaining direct emissions.

The Acciona Energía Group takes into account the lifecycle emission of all its energy assets and future investments and maintains them below the EU Sustainable Finance Taxonomy threshold as per the most recent version of the European taxonomy (2020 draft Delegated Act), i.e. below 100 g CO₂e/kWh. In addition, the Acciona Energía Group verifies on an annual basis the active measures for environmental protection implemented in its projects, as well as new potential impacts, throughout the lifecycle of its projects, including design, construction, operation and dismantlement.

Sustainability Master Plan 2021 – 2025

The Acciona Energía Group’s sustainability strategy is developed through Acciona Group’s third Sustainability Master Plan (the “SMP 2025”) from which Acciona Energía Group’s specific objectives and indicators shall be extracted. The SMP 2025 was approved in March 2021.

The purpose of the SMP 2025 is to invest in, develop and operate infrastructure assets that can make the planet sustainable. It is structured around strategic and operational objectives applicable to the entire Acciona Group organisation with specifications for the different lines of business. It covers the following areas: people centric, positive planet, exponential leadership, and integrate to transform. Each of the four pillars of the SMP 2025 has various areas of action and an established route that includes activities ranging from responsible to resilient, adopting the ones that contribute a regenerative impact. The achievement of SMP 2025 targets is linked to a percentage of the bonuses received by directors, managers and other staff of Acciona Group.

The Guarantor has an audit and sustainability committee (the “Audit and Sustainability Committee”) that monitors the ESG evolution of the Acciona Energía Group.

Litigation

Members of the Acciona Energía Group are party as defendants to legal proceedings from time to time arising in the ordinary course of business, most frequently, in claims with subcontractors related to disputes in construction contracts and with land owners in connection with real estate-related issues. In addition, members of the Acciona Energía Group are also party from time to time as plaintiffs in other disputes in connection with contractual breaches of counterparties (mostly, payment defaults), tax claims, insurance claims and permitting and regulatory claims.

The Acciona Energía Group records provisions in its consolidated balance sheet to cover liabilities whenever it is considered that an adverse outcome is more likely than not and the potential outflow is quantifiable. Provisions are quantified on the basis of the information available and legal advice and are used to provide for the specific obligations for which they were originally recognised. As of 31 December 2021 and 31 December 2020, the Acciona Energía Group did not have any provisions for legal contingencies.

On 13 June 2006 the European Central Bank (the “ECB”) announced that Notes in NGN form are in compliance with the “Standards for the use of EU securities settlement systems in ESCB credit operations” of the central banking system for the euro (the “Eurosystem”), provided that certain other criteria are fulfilled. At the same time the ECB also announced that arrangements for Notes in NGN form will be offered by Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg as of 30 June 2006 and that debt securities in global bearer form issued through Euroclear and Clearstream, Luxembourg after 31 December 2006 will only be eligible as collateral for Eurosystem operations if the NGN form is used.

In the event of insolvency (concurso) of the Issuer, under Royal Legislative Decree 1/2020, of 5 May, enacting the consolidated text of the Insolvency Law (Real Decreto Legislativo 1/2020, de 5 de mayo, por el que se aprueba el texto refundido de la Ley Concursal) as amended from time to time (the “Spanish Insolvency Law”) claims relating to Notes will be ordinary credits (créditos ordinarios) as defined by the Spanish Insolvency Law unless they qualify as subordinated credits (créditos subordinados) in the limited circumstances set out in Article 281 of the Spanish Insolvency Law. Ordinary credits rank below credits against the insolvency state (créditos contra la masa) and privileged credits (créditos privilegiados).

Ordinary credits rank below credits against the insolvency state (créditos contra la masa) and privileged credits (créditos privilegiados).

Rights attaching to the Notes

Each issue of Notes will be the subject of a Pricing Supplement which, for the purposes of that issue only, supplements the terms and conditions set out in the relevant Global Note or, as the case may be, definitive Notes and must be read in conjunction with the relevant Notes. See “Forms of Notes” and “Form of Pricing Supplement”.

Term of the Notes

The tenor of the Notes shall be not less than 3 days or more than 364 days from and including the date of issue to, but excluding, the maturity date, subject to applicable legal and regulatory requirements.

Optional Redemption for Tax Reasons

The Issuer may redeem Notes (in whole but not in part) if it has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts pursuant to the terms and conditions of the Notes as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision or any authority thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction) which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the issue date of the relevant Notes and such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it.

Prescription

Claims for payment of principal and interest in respect of the Notes shall become prescribed and void unless made, in the case of principal, within ten years after the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, in the case of interest, five years after the relevant Interest Payment Date in each case as specified in the relevant Pricing Supplement.

1. For value received, Acciona Energía Financiación Filiales, S.A. Unipersonal (the “Issuer”) promises to pay to the bearer of this Global Note on the Maturity Date set out in the Pricing Supplement or on such earlier date as the same may become payable in accordance with paragraph 4 below (the “Relevant Date”), the Nominal Amount or, as the case may be, Redemption Amount set out in the Pricing Supplement, together with interest thereon, if this is an interest bearing Global Note, at the rate and at the times (if any) specified herein and in the Pricing Supplement. Terms defined in the Pricing Supplement attached hereto but not otherwise defined in this Global Note shall have the same meaning in this Global Note.

All such payments shall be made in accordance with an amended and restated issue and paying agency agreement dated 19 July 2022 (as further amended and restated or supplemented from time to time, the “Issue and Paying Agency Agreement”) between the Issuer and The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch as the issue and paying agent (the “Issue and Paying Agent”), a copy of which is available for inspection, upon reasonable notice, at the offices of the Issue and Paying Agent at One Canada Square, London E14 5AL, United Kingdom, and subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth below. All such payments shall be made upon presentation and surrender of this Global Note at the office of the Issue and Paying Agent referred to above by transfer to an account denominated in the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement maintained by the bearer with a bank in the principal financial centre in the country of the Specified Currency or, in the case of a Global Note denominated in Euro, by transfer to a Euro account (or any other account to which Euro may be credited or transferred) maintained by the payee with a bank in the principal financial centre of any member state of the European Union. Each of the Issuer and Corporación Acciona Energías Renovables, S.A. (the “Guarantor”) undertakes that, so long as the Notes are listed, traded and/or quoted on any listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system, there will at all times be a paying agent with a specified office in such place as may be required by the rules and regulations of the relevant listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, presentation and surrender of this Global Note shall be made outside the United States and no amount shall be paid by transfer to an account in the United States, or mailed to an address in the United States. In the case of a Global Note denominated in U.S. dollars, payments shall be made by transfer to an account denominated in U.S. Dollars in the principal financial centre of any country outside of the United States that the Issuer or the Issue and Paying Agent so chooses.

2. If the Pricing Supplement specifies that the New Global Note form is applicable, this Global Note shall be a “New Global Note” or “NGN” and the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note shall be the aggregate amount from time to time entered in the records of both ICSDs (as defined below). The records of the ICSDs (which expression in this Global Note means the records that each ICSD holds for its customers which reflect the amount of such customers’ interests in the Notes (but excluding any interest in any Notes of one ICSD shown in the records of another ICSD)) shall be conclusive evidence of the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note and, for these purposes, a statement issued by an ICSD (which statement shall be made available to the bearer upon request) stating the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note at any time shall be conclusive evidence of the records of the ICSD at that time.

If the Pricing Supplement specifies that the New Global Note form is not applicable, this Global Note shall be a “Classic Global Note” or “CGN” and the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note shall be the Nominal Amount stated in the Pricing Supplement or, if lower, the Nominal Amount most recently entered by or on behalf of the Issuer in the relevant column in the Schedule hereto.

3. All payments in respect of this Global Note by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Guarantor shall be made without set-off, counterclaim, fees, liabilities or similar deductions and free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for or on account of, taxes, levies, duties, assessments or charges of any nature now or hereafter imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision thereof or any taxing authority or agency thereof or therein (“Taxes”), unless the withholding or deduction of taxes is required by law. In that event, the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor, shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law or regulation, pay such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the bearer of this Global Note or the holder or beneficial owner of any interest herein or rights in respect hereof (the “holder”) after such deduction or withholding shall equal the amount which would have been receivable hereunder in the absence of such deduction or withholding, except that the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor, shall not be required to pay any additional amounts in relation to any payment:
- (a) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a holder who is liable for such Taxes in respect of such Note by reason of his having some connection with the jurisdiction imposing the Taxes other than the mere holding of such Note;
 - (b) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a holder who would have been able to avoid such deduction or withholding by presenting a certificate of tax residence and/or such other document evidencing its tax residence required by the competent tax authorities;
 - (c) in respect of any Note presented for payment more than 15 days after the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, if applicable, the relevant Interest Payment Date or (in either case) the date on which the payment hereof is duly provided for, whichever occurs later, except to the extent that the relevant holder would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting the same for payment on the expiry of such period of 15 days;
 - (d) to, or to a third party on behalf of, individuals resident for tax purposes in the Kingdom of Spain, if the Spanish tax authorities determine that payments made to such individuals are not exempt from withholding tax and require a withholding to be made;
 - (e) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Spanish resident legal entity subject to Spanish Corporate Income Tax, if the Spanish tax authorities determine that the Notes do not comply with the exemption requirements specified in the General Directorate for Taxation’s ruling of 27 July 2004 and require a withholding to be made; or
 - (f) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a holder if the Issuer (or the Guarantor, as the case may be) does not receive any relevant information as may be required by Spanish tax law, regulation or binding ruling or in case the current information procedures are modified, amended or supplemented by any Spanish law, regulation or a binding ruling.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Global Note, any amounts to be paid in respect of the Notes by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Guarantor will be paid net on any deduction or withholding imposed or required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”), or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code (or any regulations thereunder or official interpretations thereof) or an intergovernmental agreement between the United States and another jurisdiction facilitating the implementation thereof (or any fiscal or regulatory legislation, rules or practices implementing such an intergovernmental agreement) (any such withholding or deduction, a “FATCA Withholding”). Neither the Issuer, the Guarantor nor any other person will be required to pay any additional amounts in respect of FATCA Withholding.

4. The Notes may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time, on giving not less than 14 days' notice to the holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at the Redemption Amount specified in the Pricing Supplement, together with (if this Note is an interest bearing Note) interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption, if:
- (a) the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in paragraph 3 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision thereof or any authority or agency thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the Issue Date specified in the Pricing Supplement; and
 - (b) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided, however, that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 14 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this paragraph, the Issuer shall deliver to the Issue and Paying Agent:

- (a) a certificate signed by two directors of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred; and
- (b) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing at the cost of the Issuer to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

Upon the expiry of any such notice as is referred to in this paragraph, the Issuer shall be bound to redeem the Notes in accordance with this paragraph.

5. The Issuer, the Guarantor or any of their affiliates may at any time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise at any price. All Notes so purchased by the Issuer otherwise than in the ordinary course of business of dealings in securities or as a nominee shall be cancelled and shall not be reissued or resold. All Notes so purchased by the Guarantor or any affiliate of the Issuer or the Guarantor may be cancelled, held by the Guarantor or such affiliate or resold.
6. On each occasion on which:
- (i) Definitive Notes: Notes in definitive form are delivered; or
 - (ii) Cancellation: Notes represented by this Global Note are to be cancelled in accordance with paragraph 5, the Issuer shall procure that:

- (a) if the Pricing Supplement specifies that the New Global Note form is not applicable, (i) the aggregate principal amount of such Notes; and (ii) the remaining Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note (which shall be the previous Nominal Amount hereof less the aggregate of the amount referred to in (i) above) are entered in the Schedule hereto, whereupon the Nominal Amount of Notes represented by this Global Note shall for all purposes be as most recently so entered; and
- (b) if the Pricing Supplement specifies that the New Global Note form is applicable, details of the exchange or cancellation shall be entered pro rata in the records of the ICSDs and the Nominal Amount of the Notes entered in the records of the ICSDs and represented by this Global Note shall be reduced by the principal amount so exchanged or cancelled.

7. The payment obligations of the Issuer represented by this Global Note constitute and at all times shall constitute a direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligation of the Issuer ranking pari passu without any preference among themselves and with all present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, other than obligations preferred by mandatory provisions of law and other statutory exceptions.
8. If the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, if applicable, the relevant Interest Payment Date, is not a Payment Business Day (as defined herein) payment in respect hereof will not be made and credit or transfer instructions shall not be given until the next following Payment Business Day (unless that date falls more than 364 days after the Issue Date, in which case payment shall be made on the immediately preceding Payment Business Day) and the bearer of this Global Note shall not be entitled to any interest or other sums in respect of such postponed payment.

As used in this Global Note:

"Payment Business Day" means any day other than a Saturday or Sunday which is either (i) if the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement is any currency other than Euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre of the country of the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars, shall be Sydney) or (ii) if the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement is Euro, a day which is a TARGET Business Day; and

"TARGET Business Day" means a day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-time Gross Settlement Express Transfer (TARGET2) System or any successor thereto, is operating credit or transfer instructions in respect of payments in Euro.

9. This Global Note is negotiable and, accordingly, title hereto shall pass by delivery and the bearer shall be treated as being absolutely entitled to receive payment upon due presentation hereof (notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing thereon or notice of any previous loss or theft thereof).
10. This Global Note is issued in respect of an issue of Notes of the Issuer and is exchangeable in whole (but not in part only) for duly executed and authenticated bearer Notes in definitive form (whether before, on or, subject as provided below, after the Maturity Date):
 - (a) if one or both of Euroclear Bank SA/NV ("Euroclear") or Clearstream Banking S.A. ("Clearstream, Luxembourg" and, together with Euroclear, the international central securities depositaries or "ICSDs") or any other relevant clearing system in which this Global Note is held at the relevant time is closed for business for a continuous period of 14 days (other than by reason of weekends or public holidays, statutory or otherwise) or if any such clearing system announces an intention, or does in fact, permanently cease to do business;
 - (b) if default is made in the payment of any amount payable in respect of this Global Note; or
 - (c) if the Notes are required to be removed from Euroclear, Clearstream, Luxembourg or any other clearing system and no suitable (in the determination of the Issuer) alternative clearing system is available.

Upon presentation and surrender of this Global Note during normal business hours to the Issuer at the offices of the Issue and Paying Agent (or to any other person or at any other office outside the United States as may be designated in writing by the Issuer to the bearer), the Issue and Paying Agent shall authenticate and deliver, in exchange for this Global Note, bearer definitive notes denominated in the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement in an aggregate nominal amount equal to the Nominal Amount of this Global Note.

11. If, upon any such event and following such surrender, definitive Notes are not issued in full exchange for this Global Note before 5.00 p.m. (London time) on the thirtieth day after surrender, this Global Note (including the obligation hereunder to issue definitive notes) will become void and the bearer will have no further rights under this Global Note (but without prejudice to the rights which the bearer or any other person may have under a Deed of Covenant dated 19 July 2022, entered into by the Issuer).
12. This Global Note has the benefit of an English law governed deed of guarantee issued by the Guarantor on 19 July 2022 (the “English Law Guarantee”) unless “Spanish Law Guarantee” is specified as applicable in the Pricing Supplement, in which case the Global Note has the benefit of a Spanish law governed guarantee issued by the Guarantor on 19 July 2022 (the “Spanish Law Guarantee”) and, together with the English Law Guarantee, the “Guarantees” and each a “Guarantee”). Copies of the Guarantees are available for inspection during normal business hours at the offices of the Issue and Paying Agent referred to above.
13. If this is an interest bearing Global Note, then:
 - (a) notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 above, if any payment of interest in respect of this Global Note falling due for payment prior to the Maturity Date remains unpaid on the fifteenth day after falling so due, the amount referred to in paragraph 1 shall be payable on such fifteenth day; and
 - (b) upon each payment of interest (if any) prior to the Maturity Date in respect of this Global Note, the Issuer shall procure that:
 - (i) if the Pricing Supplement specifies that the New Global Note form is not applicable, the Schedule hereto shall be duly completed by the Issue and Paying Agent to reflect such payment; and
 - (ii) if the Pricing Supplement specifies that the New Global Note form is applicable, details of such payment shall be entered pro rata in the records of the ICSDs.
14. If this is a fixed rate interest bearing Global Note, interest shall be calculated on the Nominal Amount as follows:
 - (a) interest shall be payable on the Nominal Amount in respect of each successive Interest Period (as defined below) from the Issue Date to the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, to the Relevant Date), in arrear on the relevant Interest Payment Date, on the basis of the Day Count Convention specified in the Pricing Supplement or, if none is specified, on the basis of the actual number of days in such Interest Period and a year of 360 days or, if this Global Note is denominated in Sterling, 365 days at the Rate of Interest specified in the Pricing Supplement with the resulting figure being rounded to the nearest amount of the Specified Currency which is available as legal tender in the country or countries (in the case of the Euro) of the Specified Currency (with halves being rounded upwards); and
 - (b) the period beginning on (and including) the Issue Date and ending on (but excluding) the first Interest Payment Date and each successive period beginning on (and including) an Interest Payment Date and ending on (but excluding) the next succeeding Interest Payment Date is an “Interest Period” for the purposes of this paragraph.
15. If this is a floating rate interest bearing Global Note, interest shall be calculated on the Nominal Amount as follows:
 - (a) in the case of a Global Note which specifies EURIBOR as the Reference Rate in the Pricing Supplement, the Rate of Interest will be the aggregate of EURIBOR and the Margin specified in the Pricing Supplement (if any) above or below EURIBOR. Interest shall be payable on the Nominal Amount in respect of each successive Interest Period (as defined below) from the Issue Date to the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, to the Relevant Date), in arrear on the relevant Interest Payment Date, on the basis of the Day Count Convention specified in the Pricing Supplement or, if none is specified, on the basis of the actual number of days in such Interest Period and a year of 360 days.

As used in this Global Note (and unless otherwise specified in the Pricing Supplement), "EURIBOR" shall be equal to EUR-EURIBOR-Reuters (as defined in the 2006 ISDA Definitions published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc., as amended, updated or replaced as at the date of this Global Note (the "ISDA Definitions")) as at 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or as near thereto as practicable on the second TARGET Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period (a "EURIBOR Interest Determination Date"), as if the Reset Date (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) was the first day of such Interest Period and the Designated Maturity (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) was the number of months specified in the Pricing Supplement in relation to the Reference Rate;

- (b) in the case of a Global Note which specifies any other Reference Rate in the Pricing Supplement, the Rate of Interest will be the aggregate of such Reference Rate and the Margin (if any) above or below such Reference Rate. Interest shall be payable on the Nominal Amount in respect of each successive Interest Period (as defined below) from the Issue Date to the Maturity Date only, in arrear on the relevant Interest Payment Date, on the basis of the Day Count Fraction specified in the Pricing Supplement. As used in this Global Note, the Reference Rate shall be equal to the Reference Rate which appears on the relevant Reference Rate Screen Page as at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date as each such term is specified in the Pricing Supplement;
- (c) the Calculation Agent specified in the Pricing Supplement will, as soon as practicable after (i) 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) on each EURIBOR Interest Determination Date, or (ii) on each other specified Interest Determination Date (as the case may be), determine the Rate of Interest and calculate the amount of interest payable (the "Amount of Interest") for the relevant Interest Period. "Rate of Interest" means the rate which is determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 15 (a) or (b) above. The Amount of Interest payable per Note shall be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest to the nominal amount of one Note of each Denomination, multiplying such product by the Day Count Convention specified in the Pricing Supplement or, if none is specified, by the actual number of days in the Interest Period concerned divided by 360 (or according to the relevant market practice for the relevant currency) and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest amount of the Specified Currency which is available as legal tender in the country or countries (in the case of the Euro) of the Specified Currency (with halves being rounded upwards);
- (d) the period beginning on (and including) the Issue Date and ending on (but excluding) the first Interest Payment Date and each successive period beginning on (and including) an Interest Payment Date and ending on (but excluding) the next succeeding Interest Payment Date is called an "Interest Period" for the purposes of this paragraph; and
- (e) the Issuer will procure that a notice specifying the Rate of Interest payable in respect of each Interest Period be published as soon as practicable after the determination of the Rate of Interest. Such notice will be delivered to the clearing system(s) in which this Global Note is held at the relevant time in accordance with paragraph 22 or, if this Global Note has been exchanged for bearer definitive Notes pursuant to paragraph 10, will be published in a leading English language daily newspaper published in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times). Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of such delivery or publication.

If the Calculation Agent is unable to determine the Reference Rate specified in the Pricing Supplement in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (b) above, due to the relevant benchmark not being calculated or administered or because it becomes illegal for the Calculation Agent to determine any amounts due to be paid as at the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Issuer in consultation with an independent financial advisor (the "IFA") appointed by the Issuer in its sole discretion, shall determine any alternative rate which has replaced the benchmark in customary market usage for the purposes of determining the Reference Rate in respect of the Notes, provided that if the IFA determines that there is no clear market consensus as to whether any rate has replaced the relevant benchmark in customary market usage, the IFA shall determine an appropriate alternative rate, and the decision of the IFA will be binding on the Issuer, the Calculation Agent and the holders of the Notes. Notwithstanding the above, if the IFA is not able to determine an appropriate alternative rate, the Reference Rate shall be the one applicable to the last preceding Interest Period. If the IFA determines, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, that an adjustment (which may be positive, negative or zero) to the Margin is required to be applied to the alternative Reference Rate then such adjustment to the Margin as determined by the IFA shall be applied. The Issuer shall promptly thereafter notify the alternative Reference Rate and any adjustment to the Margin to the holders of the Notes as set out in item (f) above.

16. The determination of an applicable Rate of Interest and/or Amount of Interest by the Calculation Agent for any Interest Period pursuant to paragraph 15 shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon the Issuer, the Guarantor and the bearer of this Global Note.
17. Instructions for payment must be received at the office of the Issue and Paying Agent referred to above together with this Global Note as follows:
 - (a) if this Global Note is denominated in U.S. dollars, Euro or Sterling at least one Business Day prior to the relevant payment date; and
 - (b) in all other cases, at least two Business Days prior to the relevant payment date.

As used in this paragraph, "Business Day" means:

- (i) in the case of payments in Euro, a TARGET Business Day; and
 - (ii) in all other cases, a day on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre in the country of the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement.
18. Upon any payment being made in respect of the Notes represented by this Global Note, the Issuer shall procure that:
 - (a) CGN: if the Pricing Supplement specifies that the New Global Note form is not applicable, details of such payment shall be entered in the Schedule hereto and, in the case of any payment of principal, the Nominal Amount of the Notes represented by this Global Note shall be reduced by the principal amount so paid; and
 - (b) NGN: if the Pricing Supplement specifies that the New Global Note form is applicable, details of such payment shall be entered pro rata in the records of the ICSDs and, in the case of any payment of principal, the Nominal Amount of the Notes entered in the records of the ICSDs and represented by this Global Note shall be reduced by the principal amount so paid.
19. This Global Note shall not be validly issued unless manually authenticated by The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch as Issue and Paying Agent.
20. If the Pricing Supplement specifies that the New Global Note form is applicable, this Global Note shall not be valid for any purpose until it has been effectuated for and on behalf of the entity appointed as common safekeeper by the ICSDs.
21. This Global Note and any non-contractual obligations arising from or connected with it are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law.

The English courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Global Note and any non-contractual obligations arising from or connected with it (including a dispute regarding the existence, validity or termination of this Global Note). The Issuer agrees, and each of the Guarantor and the bearer of this Global Note are deemed to agree, that the English courts are the most appropriate and convenient courts to settle any such dispute and accordingly no such party will argue to the contrary.

The Issuer appoints Bestinver London Office at its office at 15 Grosvenor Gardens, Second Floor, (City of Westminster) London SW1W 0BD, United Kingdom and/or at such other address in England or Wales as the Issuer may specify in writing to the Noteholders, as its agent for service of process in any proceedings before the English courts in connection with this Global Note. If any person appointed as process agent is unable for any reason to act as agent for service of process, the Issuer will appoint another agent, and failing such appointment within 15 days, the bearer shall be entitled to appoint such a person by written notice addressed to the Issuer and delivered to the Issuer or to the office of the Issue and Paying Agent. The Issuer agrees that failure by a process agent to notify it of any process will not invalidate the relevant proceedings. This paragraph 21 does not affect any other method of service allowed by law.

- 22. For so long as this Global Note is held on behalf of a clearing system, notices to the holders of Notes represented by this Global Note may be given by delivery of the relevant notice to that clearing system for communication by it to entitled accountholders in substitution for publication as required by this Global Note or by delivery of the relevant notice to the holder of the Global Note, except that, for so long as such Notes are admitted to trading on the regulated market of the Irish Stock Exchange plc trading as Euronext Dublin ("Euronext Dublin") all notices shall be published in a manner which complies with its rules and regulations.
- 23. Claims for payment of principal and interest in respect of this Global Note shall become prescribed and void unless made, in the case of principal, within ten years after the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, in the case of interest, five years after the relevant Interest Payment Date.
- 24. No person shall have any right to enforce any provision of this Global Note under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

Nominal Amount of this Note:

1. For value received, Acciona Energía Financiación Filiales, S.A. Unipersonal (the “Issuer”) promises to pay to the bearer of this Note on the Maturity Date set out in the Pricing Supplement, or on such earlier date as the same may become payable in accordance with paragraph 3 below (the “Relevant Date”), the above-mentioned Nominal Amount or, as the case may be, the Redemption Amount set out in the Pricing Supplement, together with interest thereon, if this is an interest bearing Note, at the rate and at the times (if any) specified herein and in the Pricing Supplement. Terms defined in the Pricing Supplement attached hereto but not otherwise defined in this Note shall have the same meaning in this Note.

All such payments shall be made in accordance with an amended and restated issue and paying agency agreement dated 19 July 2022 (as further amended and restated or supplemented from time to time, the “Issue and Paying Agency Agreement”) between the Issuer and The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch as the issue and paying agent (the “Issue and Paying Agent”), a copy of which is available for inspection, upon reasonable notice, at the offices of the Issue and Paying Agent at One Canada Square, London E14 5AL, United Kingdom, and subject to and in accordance with the terms and conditions set forth below. All such payments shall be made upon presentation and surrender of this Note at the office of the Issue and Paying Agent referred to above by transfer to an account denominated in the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement maintained by the bearer with a bank in the principal financial centre in the country of that currency or, if this Note is denominated in Euro, by transfer to a Euro account (or any other account to which Euro may be credited or transferred) maintained by the payee with a bank in the principal financial centre of any member state of the European Union. Each of the Issuer and Corporación Acciona Energías Renovables, S.A. (the “Guarantor”) undertakes that, so long as the Notes are listed, traded and/or quoted on any listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system, there will at all times be a paying agent with a specified office in such place as may be required by the rules and regulations of the relevant listing authority, stock exchange and/or quotation system.

2. All payments in respect of this Note by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Guarantor shall be made without set-off, counterclaim, fees, liabilities or similar deductions, and free and clear of, and without deduction or withholding for or on account of, taxes, levies, duties, assessments or charges of any nature now or hereafter imposed, levied, collected, withheld or assessed by or on behalf of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision thereof or any taxing authority or agency thereof or therein (“Taxes”), unless the withholding or deduction of taxes is required by law. In that event, the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor, shall, to the extent permitted by applicable law or regulation, pay such additional amounts as shall be necessary in order that the net amounts received by the bearer of this Note or the holder or beneficial owner of any interest herein or rights in respect hereof (the “holder”) after such deduction or withholding shall equal the amount which would have been receivable hereunder in the absence of such deduction or withholding, except that the Issuer or, as the case may be, the Guarantor, shall not be required to pay any additional amounts in relation to any payment:
 - (a) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a holder who is liable for such Taxes in respect of such Note by reason of his having some connection with the jurisdiction imposing the Taxes other than the mere holding of such Note;

- (b) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a holder who would have been able to avoid such deduction or withholding by presenting a certificate of tax residence and/or such other document evidencing its tax residence required by the competent tax authorities;
- (c) in respect of any Note presented for payment more than 15 days after the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, if applicable, the relevant Interest Payment Date or (in either case) the date on which the payment hereof is duly provided for, whichever occurs later, except to the extent that the relevant holder would have been entitled to such additional amounts on presenting the same for payment on the expiry of such period of 15 days;
- (d) to, or to a third party on behalf of, individuals resident for tax purposes in the Kingdom of Spain, if the Spanish tax authorities determine that payments made to such individuals are not exempt from withholding tax and require a withholding to be made;
- (e) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a Spanish resident legal entity subject to Spanish Corporate Income Tax, if the Spanish tax authorities determine that the Notes do not comply with the exemption requirements specified in the General Directorate for Taxation's ruling of 27 July 2004 and require a withholding to be made; or
- (f) to, or to a third party on behalf of, a holder if the Issuer (or the Guarantor, as the case may be) does not receive any relevant information as may be required by Spanish tax law, regulation or binding ruling or in case the current information procedures are modified, amended or supplemented by any Spanish law, regulation or a binding ruling.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Note, any amounts to be paid in respect of this Note by or on behalf of the Issuer or the Guarantor will be paid net on any deduction or withholding imposed or required pursuant to an agreement described in Section 1471(b) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or otherwise imposed pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the Code (or any regulations thereunder or official interpretations thereof) or an intergovernmental agreement between the United States and another jurisdiction facilitating the implementation thereof (or any fiscal or regulatory legislation, rules or practices implementing such an intergovernmental agreement) (any such withholding or deduction, a "FATCA Withholding"). Neither the Issuer, the Guarantor nor any other person will be required to pay any additional amounts in respect of FATCA Withholding.

3. This Note may be redeemed at the option of the Issuer in whole, but not in part, at any time, on giving not less than 14 days' notice to the holders (which notice shall be irrevocable), at the Redemption Amount specified in the Pricing Supplement, together with (if this Note is an interest bearing Note) interest accrued to the date fixed for redemption, if:
 - (a) the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay additional amounts as provided or referred to in paragraph 2 as a result of any change in, or amendment to, the laws or regulations of the Kingdom of Spain or any political subdivision thereof or any authority or agency thereof or therein having power to tax, or any change in the application or official interpretation of such laws or regulations (including a holding by a court of competent jurisdiction), which change or amendment becomes effective on or after the Issue Date specified in the Pricing Supplement; and
 - (b) such obligation cannot be avoided by the Issuer taking reasonable measures available to it, provided, however, that no such notice of redemption shall be given earlier than 14 days prior to the earliest date on which the Issuer would be obliged to pay such additional amounts if a payment in respect of the Notes were then due.

Prior to the publication of any notice of redemption pursuant to this paragraph, the Issuer shall deliver to the Issue and Paying Agent:

- (a) a certificate signed by two directors of the Issuer stating that the Issuer is entitled to effect such redemption and setting forth a statement of facts showing that the conditions precedent to the right of the Issuer so to redeem have occurred; and
- (b) an opinion of independent legal advisers of recognised standing at the cost of the Issuer to the effect that the Issuer has or will become obliged to pay such additional amounts as a result of such change or amendment.

Upon the expiry of any such notice as is referred to in this paragraph, the Issuer shall be bound to redeem the Notes in accordance with this paragraph.

- 4. The Issuer, the Guarantor or any of their affiliates may at any time purchase Notes in the open market or otherwise at any price. All Notes so purchased by the Issuer otherwise than in the ordinary course of business of dealings in securities or as a nominee shall be cancelled and shall not be reissued or resold. All Notes so purchased by the Guarantor or any affiliate of the Issuer or the Guarantor may be cancelled, held by the Guarantor or such affiliate or resold.
- 5. The payment obligation of the Issuer represented by this Note constitutes and at all times shall constitute a direct, unsecured and unsubordinated obligation of the Issuer ranking pari passu without any preference among themselves and with all present and future unsecured and unsubordinated obligations of the Issuer, other than obligations preferred by mandatory provisions of law and other statutory exceptions.
- 6. If the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, if applicable, the relevant Interest Payment Date, is not a Payment Business Day (as defined herein) payment in respect hereof will not be made and credit or transfer instructions shall not be given until the next following Payment Business Day (unless that date falls more than 364 days after the Issue Date, in which case payment shall be made on the immediately preceding Payment Business Day), and the bearer of this Note shall not be entitled to any interest or other sums in respect of such postponed payment.

As used herein:

"Payment Business Day", shall mean any day, other than a Saturday or a Sunday, which is both (a) a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the relevant place of presentation, and (b) either (i) if the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement is any currency other than Euro, a day on which commercial banks and foreign exchange markets settle payments and are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in both London and the principal financial centre of the country of the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement (which, if the Specified Currency is Australian dollars, shall be Sydney) or (ii) if the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement is Euro, a day which is a TARGET Business Day;

"TARGET Business Day" means a day on which the Trans-European Automated Real-time Gross Settlement Express Transfer (TARGET2) System, or any successor thereto, is operating credit or transfer instructions in respect of payments in Euro.

- 7. This Note is negotiable and, accordingly, title hereto shall pass by delivery and the bearer shall be treated as being absolutely entitled to receive payment upon due presentation hereof (notwithstanding any notation of ownership or other writing thereon or notice of any previous loss or theft thereof).
- 8. This Note has the benefit of an English law governed deed of guarantee issued by the Guarantor on 19 July 2022 (the "English Law Guarantee") unless "Spanish Law Guarantee" is specified as applicable in the Pricing Supplement, in which case this Note has the benefit of a Spanish law governed guarantee issued by the Guarantor on 19 July 2022 (the "Spanish Law Guarantee" and, together with the English Law Guarantee, the "Guarantees" and each a "Guarantee"). Copies of the Guarantees are available for inspection during normal business hours at the offices of the Issue and Paying Agent referred to above.

9. [If this is an interest bearing Note, then:
- (a) notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 1 above, if any payment of interest in respect of this Note falling due for payment prior to the Maturity Date remains unpaid on the fifteenth day after falling so due, the amount referred to in paragraph 1 shall be payable on such fifteenth day; and
 - (b) upon each payment of interest (if any) prior to the Maturity Date in respect of this Note, the Schedule hereto shall be duly completed by the Issue and Paying Agent to reflect such payment.
10. If this is a fixed rate interest bearing Note, interest shall be calculated on the above-mentioned Nominal Amount as follows:
- (a) interest shall be payable on the above-mentioned Nominal Amount in respect of each successive Interest Period (as defined below) from the Issue Date to the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, to the Relevant Date), in arrear on the relevant Interest Payment Date, on the basis of the Day Count Convention specified in the Pricing Supplement or, if none is specified, on the basis of the actual number of days in such Interest Period and a year of 360 days at the Rate of Interest specified in the Pricing Supplement with the resulting figure being rounded to the nearest amount of the Specified Currency which is available as legal tender in the country or countries (in the case of the Euro) of the Specified Currency (with halves being rounded upwards); and
 - (b) the period beginning on (and including) the Issue Date and ending on (but excluding) the first Interest Payment Date and each successive period beginning on (and including) an Interest Payment Date and ending on (but excluding) the next succeeding Interest Payment Date is an "Interest Period" for the purposes of this paragraph.
11. If this is a floating rate interest bearing Note, interest shall be calculated on the above-mentioned Nominal Amount as follows:
- (a) in the case of a Note which specifies EURIBOR as the Reference Rate in the Pricing Supplement, the Rate of Interest will be the aggregate of EURIBOR and the Margin specified in the Pricing Supplement (if any) above or below EURIBOR. Interest shall be payable on the above-mentioned Nominal Amount in respect of each successive Interest Period (as defined below) from the Issue Date to the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, to the Relevant Date), in arrear on the relevant Interest Payment Date, on the basis of the Day Count Convention specified in the Pricing Supplement or, if none is specified, on the basis of the actual number of days in such Interest Period and a year of 360 days.

As used in this Note (and unless otherwise specified in the Pricing Supplement), "EURIBOR" shall be equal to EUR-EURIBOR-Reuters (as defined in the 2006 ISDA Definitions published by the International Swaps and Derivatives Association, Inc., as amended, updated or replaced as at the date of this Note (the "ISDA Definitions")) as at 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) or as near thereto as practicable on the second TARGET Business Day before the first day of the relevant Interest Period (a "EURIBOR Interest Determination Date"), as if the Reset Date (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) was the first day of such Interest Period and the Designated Maturity (as defined in the ISDA Definitions) was the number of months specified in the Pricing Supplement in relation to the Reference Rate;
 - (b) in the case of a Note which specifies any other Reference Rate in the Pricing Supplement, the Rate of Interest will be the aggregate of such Reference Rate and the Margin (if any) above or below such Reference Rate. Interest shall be payable on the Nominal Amount in respect of each successive Interest Period (as defined below) from the Issue Date to the Maturity Date only, in arrear on the relevant Interest Payment Date, on the basis of the Day Count Fraction specified in the Pricing Supplement. As used in this Note, the Reference Rate shall be equal to the Reference Rate which appears on the relevant Reference Rate Screen Page as at the Relevant Time on the Interest Determination Date as each such term is specified in the Pricing Supplement;

- (c) the Calculation Agent specified in the Pricing Supplement will, as soon as practicable after (i) 11.00 a.m. (Brussels time) on each EURIBOR Interest Determination Date, or (ii) on each other specified Interest Determination Date (as the case may be), determine the Rate of Interest and calculate the amount of interest payable (the "Amount of Interest") for the relevant Interest Period. "Rate of Interest" means the rate which is determined in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 11 (a) or (b) above. The Amount of Interest payable per Note shall be calculated by applying the Rate of Interest to the nominal amount of one Note of each Denomination, multiplying such product by the Day Count Convention specified in the Pricing Supplement or, if none is specified, by the actual number of days in the Interest Period concerned divided by 360 (or according to the market practice for the relevant currency) and rounding the resulting figure to the nearest amount of the Specified Currency which is available as legal tender in the country or countries (in the case of the Euro) of the Specified Currency (with halves being rounded upwards);
- (d) the period beginning on (and including) the Issue Date and ending on (but excluding) the first Interest Payment Date and each successive period beginning on (and including) an Interest Payment Date and ending on (but excluding) the next succeeding Interest Payment Date is called an "Interest Period" for the purposes of this paragraph; and
- (e) the Issuer will procure that a notice specifying the Rate of Interest payable in respect of each Interest Period be published as soon as practicable after the determination of the Rate of Interest. Such notice will be delivered to the bearer of this Note or, if that is not practicable, will be published in a leading English language daily newspaper published in London (which is expected to be the Financial Times). Any such notice shall be deemed to have been given on the date of such delivery or publication.

If the Calculation Agent is unable to determine the Reference Rate specified in the Pricing Supplement in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) or (b) above, due to the relevant benchmark not being calculated or administered or because it becomes illegal for the Calculation Agent to determine any amounts due to be paid as at the relevant Interest Determination Date, the Issuer in consultation with an independent financial advisor (the "IFA") appointed by the Issuer in its sole discretion, shall determine any alternative rate which has replaced the benchmark in customary market usage for the purposes of determining the Reference Rate in respect of this Note, provided that if the IFA determines that there is no clear market consensus as to whether any rate has replaced the relevant benchmark in customary market usage, the IFA shall determine an appropriate alternative rate, and the decision of the IFA will be binding on the Issuer, the Calculation Agent and the holder of the Note. Notwithstanding the above, if the IFA is not able to determine an appropriate alternative rate, the Reference Rate shall be the one applicable to the last preceding Interest Period. If the IFA determines, acting in good faith and in a commercially reasonable manner, that an adjustment (which may be positive, negative or zero) to the Margin is required to be applied to the alternative Reference Rate then such adjustment to the Margin as determined by the IFA shall be applied. The Issuer shall promptly thereafter notify the alternative Reference Rate and any adjustment (if any) to the Margin to the holder of this Note as set out in item (f) above.

- 12. The determination of an applicable Rate of Interest and/or Amount of Interest by the Calculation Agent for any Interest Period pursuant to paragraph 11 shall (in the absence of manifest error) be final and binding upon the Issuer, the Guarantor and the bearer of this Note.
- 13. Instructions for payment must be received at the office of the Issue and Paying Agent referred to above together with this Note as follows:
 - (a) if this Note is denominated in U.S. dollars, Euro or Sterling at least one Business Day prior to the relevant payment date; and
 - (b) in all other cases, at least two Business Days prior to the relevant payment date.

As used in this paragraph, "Business Day" means:

- (i) a day other than a Saturday or Sunday on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in London;
 - (ii) in the case of payments in Euro, a TARGET Business Day; and
 - (iii) in all other cases, a day on which commercial banks are open for general business (including dealings in foreign exchange and foreign currency deposits) in the principal financial centre in the country of the Specified Currency set out in the Pricing Supplement.]²
14. This Note shall not be validly issued unless manually authenticated by The Bank of New York Mellon, London Branch as Issue and Paying Agent.
15. This Note and any non-contractual obligations arising from or connected with it are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, English law.

The English courts have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute arising out of or in connection with this Note and any non-contractual obligations arising from or connected with it (including a dispute regarding the existence, validity or termination of this Note). The Issuer agrees, and each of the Guarantor and the bearer of this Note are deemed to agree, that the English courts are the most appropriate and convenient courts to settle any such dispute and accordingly no such party will argue to the contrary.

The Issuer appoints Bestinver London Office at its office at 15 Grosvenor Gardens, Second Floor, (City of Westminster) London SW1W 0BD, United Kingdom and/or at such other address in England or Wales as the Issuer may specify in writing to the Noteholders, as its agent for service of process in any proceedings before the English courts in connection with this Note. If any person appointed as process agent is unable for any reason to act as agent for service of process, the Issuer will appoint another agent, and failing such appointment within 15 days, the bearer shall be entitled to appoint such a person by written notice addressed to the Issuer and delivered to the Issuer or to the office of the Issue and Paying Agent. The Issuer agrees that failure by a process agent to notify it of any process will not invalidate the relevant proceedings. This paragraph 14 does not affect any other method of service allowed by law.

16. If this Note has been admitted to trading in the regulated market of the Irish Stock Exchange plc trading as Euronext Dublin ("Euronext Dublin"), all notices shall be published in a manner which complies with its rules and regulations.
17. Claims for payment of principal and interest in respect of this Note shall become prescribed and void unless made, in the case of principal, within ten years after the Maturity Date (or, as the case may be, the Relevant Date) or, in the case of interest, five years after the relevant Interest Payment Date.
18. No person shall have any right to enforce any provision of this Note under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.

TAXATION

The following summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to acquire, hold or dispose of the Notes, and does not purport to deal with the tax consequences applicable to all categories of investors, some of whom (such as dealers in securities) may be subject to special rules. Prospective investors who are in any doubt as to their position should consult with their own professional advisers.

Taxation in Spain

The following is a general description of certain Spanish tax considerations. The information provided below does not purport to be a complete summary of tax law and practice currently applicable in the Kingdom of Spain and is subject to any changes in law and the interpretation and application thereof, which could be made with retroactive effect.

1. Introduction

This information has been prepared in accordance with the following Spanish tax legislation in force at the date of this Information Memorandum:

- (a) of general application, First Additional Provision of Law 10/2014 of 26 June, on regulation, supervision and solvency of credit institutions and Royal Decree 1065/2007, of 27 July, approving the general regulations of the tax inspection and management procedures and developing the common rules of the procedures to apply taxes ("Royal Decree 1065/2007"), as amended by Royal Decree 1145/2011 of 29 July ("Royal Decree 1145/2011");
- (b) for individuals resident for tax purposes in Spain who are Personal Income Tax ("PIT") taxpayers, Law 35/2006, of 28 November, on the PIT and on the partial amendment of the Corporate Income Tax Law, Non-Resident Income Tax Law and Wealth Tax Law, as amended (the "PIT Law") and Royal Decree 439/2007, of 30 March approving the PIT Regulations which develop the PIT Law, as amended, along with Law 19/1991, of 6 June on Wealth Tax, as amended (the "Wealth Tax Law"), and Law 29/1987, of 18 December on Inheritance and Gift Tax, as amended (the "Inheritance and Gift Tax Law");
- (c) for legal entities resident for tax purposes in Spain which are Corporate Income Tax ("CIT") taxpayers, Law 27/2014 of 27 November on Corporate Income Tax, as amended (the "CIT Law"), and Royal Decree 634/2015, of 10 July, promulgating the CIT Regulations, as amended (the "CIT Regulations"); and
- (d) for individuals and entities who are not resident for tax purposes in Spain which are Non-Resident Income Tax ("NRIT") taxpayers, Royal Legislative Decree 5/2004, of 5 March, promulgating the Consolidated Text of the NRIT Law (the "NRIT Law"), as amended and Royal Decree 1776/2004, of 30 July, promulgating the NRIT Regulations, as amended, along with the Wealth Tax Law and the Inheritance and Gift Tax Law, as amended.

Whatever the nature and residence of the Beneficial Owner, the acquisition and transfer of the Notes will be exempt from indirect taxes in Spain, for example, exempt from Transfer Tax and Stamp Duty, in accordance with the consolidated text of such tax promulgated by Royal Legislative Decree 1/1993, of 24 September, and exempt from Value Added Tax, in accordance with Law 37/1992, of 28 December, regulating such tax.

2. Spanish tax resident individuals

2.1 Personal Income Tax (Impuesto sobre la Renta de las Personas Físicas)

Both interest periodically received and income deriving from the transfer, redemption or repayment of the Notes constitute a return on investment obtained from the transfer of own capital to third parties in accordance with the provisions of Section 25.2 of the PIT Law, and must be included in the PIT savings taxable base of each investor and taxed currently at 19 per cent. for taxable income up to €6,000; 21 per cent. for taxable income between €6,000.01 and €50,000; 23 per cent for taxable income between €50,000.01 and €200,000 and 26 per cent for taxable income exceeding €200,000.

Pursuant to Section 44 of Royal Decree 1065/2007, as amended by Royal Decree 1145/2011, any income derived from the Notes will be paid by the Issuer free of Spanish withholding tax provided that the relevant information about the Notes is submitted in the manner detailed in “Disclosure Obligations in connection with Payments on the Notes”. In addition, income obtained upon transfer or exchange of the Notes may also be paid free of Spanish withholding tax in certain circumstances.

Nevertheless, in the case of Notes held by Spanish resident individuals and deposited with a Spanish resident entity acting as depositary or custodian, payments of interests under the Notes may be subject to withholding tax currently at a 19 per cent. rate, which may be made by the depositary or custodian.

Amounts withheld, if any, may be credited by the relevant investors against their final PIT liability.

2.2 Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio)

Individuals with tax residency in Spain will be subject to Wealth Tax, to the extent that their net worth exceeds €700,000, at the applicable rates ranging between 0.2% and 3.5%, without prejudice to any relevant exemption which may apply and the relevant laws and regulations in force in each autonomous region of Spain. Therefore, they should take into account the value of the Notes which they hold as of 31 December.

2.3 Inheritance and Gift Tax (Impuesto sobre Sucesiones y Donaciones)

Individuals resident in Spain for tax purposes who acquire ownership or other rights over any Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy will be subject to the Inheritance and Gift Tax in accordance with the applicable Spanish regional or State rules (subject to any regional tax exemptions being available to them). The applicable effective tax rates currently range between 0 per cent. and 81.6 per cent. (subject to any specific regional rules), depending on relevant factors.

3. Spanish tax resident legal entities

3.1 Corporate Income Tax (Impuesto sobre Sociedades)

Both interest periodically received and income deriving from the transfer, redemption or repayment of the Notes must be included as taxable income of Spanish tax resident legal entities for CIT purposes in accordance with the rules for this tax, being typically subject to the standard rate of 25 per cent., with lower or higher rates applicable to certain categories of taxpayers.

Pursuant to Section 44 of Royal Decree 1065/2007, as amended by Royal Decree 1145/2011, any income derived from the Notes will be paid by the Issuer to Spanish CIT taxpayers (which for the sake of clarity, include Spanish tax resident investment funds and Spanish tax resident pension funds) free of Spanish withholding tax provided that the relevant information about the Notes is submitted in the manner detailed in “Disclosure Obligations in connection with Payments on the Notes”.

However, regarding the interpretation of the amendments made by Royal Decree 1145/2011 please refer to “Risk Factors – Risks in relation to Spanish Taxation”.

In the case of Notes held by Spanish resident entities and deposited with a Spanish resident entity acting as a depositary or custodian, payments of interest and income deriving from the transfer and redemption may be subject to withholding tax, currently at a rate of 19 per cent., withholding that will be made by the depositary or custodian, if the Notes do not comply with the exemption requirements specified in the ruling issued by the Spanish Tax Authorities (Dirección General de Tributos) dated 27 July 2004 and require a withholding to be made.

Amounts withheld, if any, may be credited by the relevant investors against their final CIT liability.

3.2 Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio)

Legal entities in Spain are not subject to Wealth Tax.

3.3 Inheritance and Gift Tax (Impuesto sobre Sucesiones y Donaciones)

Legal entities resident in Spain for tax purposes which acquire ownership or other rights over the Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy are not subject to the Inheritance and Gift Tax but must include the market value of the Notes in their taxable income for Spanish CIT purposes.

4. Individuals and legal entities tax resident outside Spain

4.1 Non-Resident Income Tax (Impuesto sobre la Renta de No Residentes)

(A) Acting through a permanent establishment in Spain

Ownership of the Notes by investors who are not resident for tax purposes in Spain will not in itself create the existence of a permanent establishment in Spain.

If the Notes form part of the assets of a permanent establishment in Spain of a person or legal entity who is not resident in Spain for tax purposes, the tax rules applicable to income deriving from such Notes shall be, generally, the same as those previously set out for Spanish CIT taxpayers.

(B) Not acting through a permanent establishment in Spain

Both interest payments periodically received and income deriving from the transfer, redemption or repayment of the Notes, obtained by individuals or entities who are not resident in Spain for tax purposes, and who are NRIT taxpayers with no permanent establishment in Spain, are exempt from NRIT, on the same terms laid down for income from public debt.

In order for the exemption to apply, it is necessary to comply with certain information obligations relating to the Notes, in the manner detailed under "Disclosure obligations in connection with payments on the Notes" as laid down in Section 44 of Royal Decree 1065/2007, as amended by Royal Decree 1145/2011. If these information obligations are not complied with in the manner indicated, the Issuer will withhold 19 per cent. and the Issuer will not pay additional amounts.

Non-Resident investors entitled to the exemption from NRIT but where the Issuer does not timely receive the information about the Notes in accordance with the procedure described in detail under "Disclosure obligations in connection with payments on the Notes" would have to apply directly to the Spanish tax authorities for any refund to which they may be entitled, according to the procedures set forth in the Spanish NRIT Law.

4.2 Wealth Tax (Impuesto sobre el Patrimonio)

Individuals resident in a country with which Spain has entered into a double tax treaty in relation to the Wealth Tax will not be generally subject to such tax on the Notes. Otherwise, under current Wealth Tax Law, non-Spanish resident individuals whose Spanish properties and rights are located in Spain (or that can be exercised within the Spanish territory) and exceed €700,000 could be subject to Wealth Tax during year 2022, the applicable rates ranging between 0.2 per cent. and 3.5 per cent. However, as the income derived from the Notes is exempted from NRIT, any non-resident individuals holding the Notes as of 31 December 2022 will be exempted from Spanish Wealth Tax in respect of such holding.

Legal entities tax resident outside Spain are not subject to Spanish Wealth Tax.

4.3 Inheritance and Gift Tax (Impuesto sobre Sucesiones y Donaciones)

Individuals not tax resident in Spain who acquire ownership or other rights over the Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy, and who are tax resident in a country with which Spain has entered into a double tax treaty in relation to Inheritance and Gift Tax will be subject to the relevant double tax treaty.

If the provisions of the foregoing paragraph do not apply, such individuals will be subject to Inheritance and Gift Tax in accordance with the applicable Spanish regional and State legislation.

Legal entities not tax resident in Spain which acquire ownership or other rights over the Notes by inheritance, gift or legacy are not subject to the Inheritance and Gift Tax. They will be subject to NRIT (as described above). If the entity is resident in a country with which Spain has entered into a double tax treaty, the provisions of such treaty will apply. In general, double tax treaties provide for the taxation of this type of income in the country of residence of the beneficiary.

Payments under the Guarantees

In the opinion of the Guarantor, any payments of principal and interest made by the Guarantor under the Guarantees may be characterised as an indemnity and, accordingly, be made free and clear of, and without withholding or deduction on account of any Spanish tax.

However, although no clear precedent, statement of law or regulation exists in relation thereto, even if the Spanish tax Authorities take the view that the relevant Guarantor has effectively assumed all the obligations of the Issuer under the Notes subject to and in accordance with the Guarantees, and that accordingly they shall be classified as interest payments for Spanish tax purposes, they should determine that payments made by the Guarantor relating to interest on the Notes will be subject to the same tax rule previously set out for payments made by the Issuer (i.e. payable free of withholding tax provided that the relevant information obligations outlined in “Disclosure obligation in connection with payments on the Notes” below are complied with).

Disclosure obligations in connection with payments on the Notes

In accordance with Section 44 of Royal Decree 1065/2007, as amended by Royal Decree 1145/2011, certain information with respect to the Notes must be submitted to the Issuer at the time of each payment (or, alternatively, for interest payments, before the tenth calendar day of the month following the month in which the relevant payment is made).

Such information includes the following:

- (a) Identification of the Notes (as applicable) in respect of which the relevant payment is made;
- (b) the date on which the relevant payment is made;
- (c) total amount of income from the Notes; and
- (d) total amount of income (either from interest payments or redemption) corresponding to each clearing house located outside Spain.

In particular, the Issue and Paying Agent must certify the information above about the Notes by means of a certificate the form of which is attached as Annex I to this Information Memorandum. In light of the above, the Issuer and the Issue and Paying Agent have arranged certain procedures to facilitate the collection of information concerning the Notes by the close of business on the Business Day immediately preceding each relevant Payment Date. If, despite these procedures, the relevant information is not received by the Issuer on each Payment Date, the Issuer will withhold tax at the then-applicable rate (currently 19 per cent.) from any payment in respect of the relevant Notes. The Issuer will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such withholding.

If, before the tenth day of the month following the month in which interest is paid, the Issue and Paying Agent provides such information, the Issuer will reimburse the amounts withheld.

However, regarding the interpretation of the amendments made by Royal Decree 1145/2011 please refer to “Risk Factors – Risks in relation to Spanish Taxation”.

Investors should note that the Issuer, the Guarantor and the Dealers do not accept any responsibility relating to the procedures established for the collection of information concerning the Notes. Accordingly, neither the Issuer, the Guarantor nor the Dealers will be liable for any damage or loss suffered by any holder who would otherwise be entitled to an exemption from Spanish withholding tax but whose income payments are nonetheless paid net of Spanish withholding tax because these procedures prove ineffective. Moreover, the Issuer will not pay any additional amounts with respect to any such withholding. See “Risk Factors”. The procedures for providing documentation referred to in this section are set out in detail in the Issue and Paying Agency Agreement which may be inspected upon reasonable notice, at the specified offices of the Issuer and the Issue and Paying Agent. Should any withholding tax be levied in Spain, holders of the Notes should note that they may apply directly to the Spanish tax authorities for any tax refund which may be available to them.

Set out below is Annex I. Sections in English have been translated from the original Spanish. In the event of any discrepancy between the Spanish language version of the certificate contained in Annex I and the corresponding English translation, the Spanish tax authorities will only hold the Spanish language version of the relevant certificate as the valid one for all purposes.

U.S. Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA)

Pursuant to certain provisions of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code of 1986, commonly known as FATCA, a “foreign financial institution” may be required to withhold on certain payments it makes (“foreign passthru payments”) to persons that fail to meet certain certification, reporting, or related requirements. A number of jurisdictions including Spain have entered into, or have agreed in substance to, intergovernmental agreements with the United States to implement FATCA (“IGAs”), which modify the way in which FATCA applies in their jurisdictions. Under the provisions of IGAs as currently in effect, a foreign financial institution in an IGA jurisdiction would generally not be required to withhold under FATCA or an IGA from payments that it makes. Certain aspects of the application of the FATCA provisions and IGAs to instruments such as the Notes, including whether withholding would ever be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, are uncertain and may be subject to change. Even if withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on instruments such as the Notes, such withholding would not apply prior to the date that is two years after the date on which final regulations defining foreign passthru payments are published in the U.S. Federal Register. Holders should consult their own tax advisors regarding how these rules may apply to their investment in the Notes. In the event any withholding would be required pursuant to FATCA or an IGA with respect to payments on the Notes, no person will be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the withholding.
